

	PAGE.
SURETY :—A, will be condemned equally with the principal for whom he is surety, unless he plead the benefit of discussion in due form. (Sargeant vs. Johnson et al., C. of R.).....	298
TUTOR :—The sale by a, of a baillieur de fonds claim belonging to his ward, without authorization of a Judge, is invalid. (Pollicio, ex qualitate vs. Elvidge, S. C.).....	333
USURY :—The discounting of a promissory note by a bank, in the year 1862, by paying the face of the note (less the discount) in American greenbacks, taken at par and deducting, in addition, a commission of $10 to cover alleged trouble connected with previous renewals was not usurious. (Eastern Township Bank, appellant, and Humphrey et al., respondents, Q. B.)	156
VESSEL :— Vide SALE.
WAGER :—In the case of a, where the money is deposited before the event in the hands of a stakeholder, such deposit is equivalent to a payment, within the meaning of Art. 1927 of the Code, and therefore the losing party has no right of action to recover back the amount so deposited, in the absence of fraud. (McShane vs. Jordan, S. C.).....	61
WAGES :— Vide MINOR.
WAREHOUSE RECEIPT :—A, in favor of A., cannot be legally transferred to B, without an endorsement thereon by A. (Baile vs. Whyte, C. of R.).....	136
WAR DEPARTMENT :—Moneys payable on account of a pending contract with the, for the erection of fortifications in this Province, are not liable to attachment. (Fitts vs. Piton et al., and H. M. Principal Secretary of State for the War Department et al., T. S., S. C.).....	165
WATER POWER :— Vide DAMAGES.
WIFE :—A, séparée de biens , is not liable for butcher's meat purchased by her and consumed by herself and family. (Rousson vs. Gauvin et vir, C. C.)	82
— Vide DOWER.
WILL :—In the case of a, executed in solemn form, it is necessary that the notary, and the witnesses understand the language of the testator and that in which the will is drawn up. (McLennan, appellant, and Dewar, respondent, Q. B.).....	162
WITNESS :—When an affidavit establishes that a, will leave the next evening for the Molzie, distant from Montréal about 500 miles, and with which there is no regular communication, that he will be there at least a month, and that on his return he proposed to set off for the United States, to remain there an indefinite time, an order will be granted for the immediate examination of the witness, under Art. 240 of the Code of Civil Procedure. (Molson vs. The Molzie Company, and Dufresne, opposant, and the plaintiffs, contesting, S. C.).....	255
—A party to a cause having made, during its pendency, an assignment under the Insolvent Act, can be examined as a witness by the assignee who intervenes and takes up the instance in his place. (McFee vs. Bowie, and Brown, intervening, Q. C.).....	335 vs.
WRIT OF ERROR :—A, cannot be granted in a criminal case, by the Court of Queen's Bench sitting in Appeal, with the fact of the Attorney General. (Regina vs. Notman, Q. B.).....	255

PAGE.

135

will

ort-

was lias

204

of

ull

was

ach

rk-

15

ion

as

223

nd

al l,

252

ay

do

ri-

52

or

ely

a-

128

h

y

nd

175

o

o-

201

l

d

n

s

63

140