

Just about where C. L. Vickery's office stands were two buildings that will be easily remembered by early residents. One was occupied by Harris Burnham, clerk of the Division Court, and the other by Prof. Stoutt, barber and man of music.

THE NONQUON AT THE SEVENTH CONCESSION LINE OF REACH