HOLSTEIN-FRIESIAN NEWS Farm and Dairy to the leading exponent of dairying in Canada. The grand members of the Association are invited to send items of interest to Holstein breeders for publication in this column.

SALE OF R. O. MORROW & SON. E. LAKEVIEW, Sept. 19.—This appears a notice of Mr. Morrow's first sale of Holstein females on Oct. 18 at Hilton.

Many of the dams of these heifers have been tested in the R. O. P. Under this test many of them have given 16,000 lbs. of over of milk in a year. They are the big, thrifty kind that show every indication of being heavy milkers and good testers with constitution and digestive capacity to carry them through.

The Fred F. Field Holstein Co., of Massachusetts, has sent to the public to purchase at auction so many first class females. New breeders purport a start with foundation stock of the right kind. Mr. Morrow is planning for your accommodation and will give you every consideration. All the main railways will connect for Brighton.

COMING EVENTS. R. O. Morrow & Sons, female sale of pure bred Holsteins, Hilton, Ont., four miles north of Brighton, on Oct. 18. Ontario Agricultural College, sale of pure bred stock at Guelph, Oct. 26.
