OBITUARY

REV. FATHER W. F. McCullough

Fort William Daily Times Journal, Nov. 26 This morning at ten-thirty there was laid to rest all that was mortal of the late Father William Francis McCullough, for the past five years parish priest of St. Agnes' church, who died on Sunday night after a few days' illness from pneumonia.

The high esteem and affection in which he was held by members of all classes of the community was well evidenced by the enormous attendance at his funeral. Early this morning people began to assemble at St. Agnes' church, and long before the hour set for the burial services the street cars were filled with people who were bound for the church. People from Port Arthur came over in large numbers. Amongst those present were noticed Rev. A. J. Bruce, incumbent of St. Thomas' west Fort William and Rev. W. H. Trickett, rector of St. Paul's church.

Promptly at 10 o'clock the minute bell of the church began to toll, signifying that the hour of burial of the loved priest was drawing near.

BISHOP AND FOURTEEN PRIESTS Shortly before half-past ten Bishop Scollard, of North Bay, attended by no less than fourteen priests, said the morning office of the Lord's Day. The priests were all vested in black copes and chasubles, and the followcopes and chestolies, and the follow-ing priests were present: Reverends Father Crowley, Sudbury; Father Traynor, Copper Cliff; Father La For-tune, missioner, Schreiber; Father Tomaselli, St. Anthony's, Port Arthur; Father Belanger, missioner, Nipigon; Father Tourangeau, Father Maynard, Father Paquin, St. Patrick's; Father Daniel McCullough, McCook, Nebraska, brother of the deceased; Father John Novotny, St. Peter's; Father Grenier, Father Larue, Father Neault, St. Andrew's, Port Arthur; Father Sar-matiuk, Ruthenian Catholic church.

MANY KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Promptly at ten thirty a long line of members of the Knights of Columbus, of which Father McCullough was past grand knight, filed into the church, all the officers being present, including F. J. McCartney, grand knight, Fort William council, number 1447; Basil Lyon, grand knight, Leo council, Port Arthur; H. R. Halton, district deputy; Mayor Harry Murphy, ex grand knight. Over two hundred Knights of Columbus were in the procession and they were accommodated with difficulty with seats in the church which, large though it is, could not hold all who were so eager to pay a last tribute of respect to the beloved priest's memory.

REQUIEM MASS

Fifty children from the Francis street school, were in attendance, and were given special seats in the south transept. After the congregation had assembled, the impressive funeral service commenced, with the singing of a Solemn Requiem Mass, Rev. Father Daniel McCullough, brother of the deceased, being the celebrant, with Rev. Father Tomaselli as deacon, and Rev. Father Maynard as sub deacon.

The altar boys from St. Patrick's church assisted the alter boys of St. Agnes', and the choir of the church was augmented by the choir of St. Patrick's church.

MADE TO RETRACT SLANDER AGAINST ARCHBISHOP KELLY

In a public address some months ago the Most Rev. Archbishop Kelly of Sydney, Australia, made use of these words:

"There are certain phrases used by ardent patriots who are not Cath-olics, which I deprecate as contrary to Christianity. Here are the phrases: 'I don't mind blood, I don't mind slaughter, I don't mind revolution as long as we get what we want to ac-complish in the cause of right."

The Syndey correspondent of The London Times, wanting to make a sensation at the Archbishop's expense, cabled the quotation: "I don't mind blood," to London, where it duly appeared in the great English daily as a sentiment of the Archbishop's manufacture.

Anti-Catholic and anti-Irish socie ties took the blood thirsty sentiment from The Times, and spread it broadcast over England. The libel laws of Great Britain are very strict, and, as a consequence, The Times has been compelled to correct its report and publish a full retraction -Catholic Standard and Times.
