

20. Any person, or body politic or corporate, may found such and so many Professorships, Lectureships, Scholarships, exhibitions, prizes, or other rewards in the University, not inconsistent with the spirit and provisions of this Act, as they may think proper, by providing a sufficient endowment therefor in land or other property.

21. The programme of the courses of instruction contained in the Schedule to this Act shall be provided for and pursued in the University until altered by the Senate.

22. All Students not residing in the University, and all Scholars of the Collegiate School, will be required to board with their parents, or with persons approved of by them, or by their guardian or other persons having charge of their education, or by the President.

23. Scholars of the Collegiate School may receive free tickets to attend such course of Lectures at the University as they may select, after not less than three months attendance at the School, and upon a certificate from the Head Master setting forth that from their studious habits and general good conduct they are deserving of such privilege.

24. There shall be two Scholarships in the Collegiate School of £15 each; one for the Classical, and one for the English Department, to be competed for annually during the first week after midsummer vacation; the names of Candidates to be lodged with the Head Master on the first day of Term; the examination to be public, and to be conducted by persons to be named for that purpose by the Senate; provided always, that no Student shall hold two Scholarships at one time.

25. There shall be in the University one Scholarship of £15, either in the general or the special undergraduate course, for each County Grammar School in the Province, and for the Collegiate School, to be open to competition under such regulations, and held for such time as the Senate shall prescribe; and the holders of such Scholarships shall be exempt from all fees for instruction in the University.

26. There shall be laid before the House of Assembly within fourteen days after the opening of each annual Session, a full and detailed Account of the Income and Expenditure of the University for the previous year; and also a full and particular Report of the educational state of the University, shewing the
