SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS.

STANTON-SHAW.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Shaw, High street, was yesterday the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Mr. and Mrs. Shaw's eldest daughter, Miss Jessie May Shaw, was united in marriage to Francis Stanton, of the Star Composing room staff. The marriage, which was a quiet one, was attended by a number of relatives and intimate friends. The ceremony was performed at a quarter to six by Rev. H. H. Robles. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father. She wore cream silk with embroidered chiffon yoke and chiffon applique trimmings. Her going away gown was a tailor-made suit of brown broadcloth with hat to match. The bridal bouquet was of cream roses. After the ceremony breakfast was served, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanton left on the seven o'clock train on a ten days' trip to New York and other cities. Upon their return they will reside for the winter with the bride's parents. Miss Shaw was formerly teacher of the school at Little River. She received very many valuable presents, the groom's gift being a crescent of diamonds and pearls.

BOUTILLER-MACDONALD.

St. David's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty marriage Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Agnes May MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Boutiller, was given away by her father, Angus MacDonald, of 232 Waterloo street. Rev. A. A. Graham was the officiating clergyman.

The bride wore a travelling costume of brown broadcloth with milk fur trimmings.

The couple were unattended. The church was prettily decorated with foliage, potted plants and English ivy. Special music was rendered by the choir.

law, George Ensor. The happy couple were unattended. At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding breakfast was partaken of at the residence of the bride, and later Mr. and Mrs. Mann drove away on a wedding tour. The beautiful presents received included a clock from the bride's fellow teachers and officers in the Baptist Sunday school, and a china tea set from Haley and Son.

WATERS-DUNN.

A popular couple of the North End were given a fitting start in matrimony last evening at St. Luke's church. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. R. P. McKim, when Miss Charlotte Beatrice Dunn became the wife of Leslie Gordon Waters, formerly of this city, but now connected with the C. P. Ry. at Woodstock.

The bride wore a gown of brown broadcloth with cream trimmings and hat to match. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Ida Waters, cousin of the groom, wore champagne silk and carried a bouquet of American beauties.

William A. Smith supported the groom. The bride was given away by her father, W. B. Dunn, of the I. C. Ry. staff.

Miss Dunn has been a prominent and valued member of the church choir, and her fellow-musicians took an important part in making her wedding more than usually pretty. The choir, in full, preceded the bridal party up the aisle, and the service throughout was of a choral nature.

Special music, both vocal and instrumental, was provided. The organ and played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The church was prettily decorated with potted plants and maple leaves.

Alexander Brown and R. P. McKim, Jr. were ushers.

The young couple were the proud recipients of many handsome and appropriate gifts. Conspicuous among the others are a diamond ring, a unique cut-glass dish, the joint gift of St. Luke's choir and Sunday school.

The happy couple left last evening for a trip to Toronto, Buffalo and Niagara Falls. A copy of the wedding card has been provided at Woodstock, and the young couple will begin housekeeping immediately upon their return.

TAYLOR-LAW.

A wedding in which a large number of young people will be interested took place this afternoon at the residence of Fred E. Law, of 79 Mecklenburg street, when his daughter, Miss Freda Grace Law, was united in matrimony with Mr. Sydney Beverley Taylor, of Hartford, Conn. Rev. Hedley D. Marr, assisted by Rev. W. F. Taylor, of Manchester, Conn., brother of the groom, tied the nuptial knot. The bride was given away by her father.

The bride's wedding gown was a creation of white silk batiste over white silk. She wore a bridal veil and orange blossoms and will carry a bouquet of pink carnations. She travelled in chiffon broadcloth with a hat of corresponding tints.

The bridesmaid, Miss Gussie Law, sister of the bride, wore a costume of pale blue silk batiste. Mr. Walter R. Stewart supported Mr. Taylor.

The ceremony was performed in the drawing room in a bower of evergreens, holly and foliage. A dainty luncheon was then served, and the newly wedded couple and their guests in the dining room. The tables will be prettily decorated with yellow flowers and foliage.

The happy couple left this evening for a trip to Quebec, Montreal and the principal cities of the Eastern States. Their future home will be in Hartford, of which town Mr. Taylor is a native.

of the First Baptist Church officiated. The decorations were very artistically arranged; the color scheme in the parlor being pink and white, and in the dining-room yellow and white. The bride wore a very becoming dress of white jacquard silk with chiffon and lace trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses, officiating maidens' fern, Lillian Johnson, little niece of the bride, acted as flower girl. She was daintily dressed in blue silk and carried a basket of pink sweet peas and maiden-hair fern. The couple were the recipients of many valuable presents, among which was a handsome bronze clock from the associates of the groom, and a silver mounted dressing case, and silver chafing dish from Swift and Company, where the bride has been employed as stenographer for the past two years. The groom's present was a handsome gold watch and chain. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served, after which the happy couple left on a bridal trip to New York and other points of interest. On their return they will make their home in this city.

RAYMOND-GILLESPIE.

MONTREAL, Sept. 26.—The marriage took place very quietly at St. Matthew's church, Westmount, today, of Miss Furman, of this city, daughter of the late Rev. J. Gillespie, of Toronto, to Rev. W. O. Raymond, Jr., of Ann Arbor, Mich. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Borsnell, assisted by Rev. Dr. Raymond, of St. John's, N. B., father of the groom. The bride, who wore her travelling suit, was given away by her brother-in-law, Rev. O. W. Howard. Her only attendant was Miss Raymond, sister of the groom, and Mr. R. Harrison acted as best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mrs. Oswald Howard, sister of the bride, at which only relatives were present.

DOWNING-DELA.

A very pretty wedding took place last evening in the cathedral when Miss A. Made Dela, daughter of Mrs. Martha Dela, of 2 Brussels street, was married to E. J. Murphy Downing. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few guests and other friends of the contracting parties.

The bride wore a costume of cream silk with cream and orange blossoms. She will carry a bouquet of pink carnations. The wedding will be a quiet nature.

After the ceremony the young couple will entertain a few of their immediate friends and relatives at luncheon at their new home, 64 Charles street.

Many appropriate and pretty gifts have been received. The choir of St. Paul's of which Mr. Howell is a member have shown their good wishes in the form of a handsome set of silver spoons.

HOWELL-HOLLIS.

What promises to be a pretty ceremony will take place at St. Paul's Episcopal church this evening at seven o'clock when Miss Julia May Howell will become the bride of Frederick Hyde Howell, of Birmingham, England. Mr. E. B. Hooper will tie the nuptial knot.

The bride will wear a costume of cream silk with cream and orange blossoms. She will carry a shower bouquet of cream roses. Her cousin, Mr. Bayard Stillwell, the couple will be a quiet nature.

While members of the field battery were seated at dinner in the mess tent today a gust of wind upset the tent tables and spoiled the dinner. Things were a complete wreck and as the men had just sat down and had been furnished with their full rations, they had to go with empty stomachs until supper time. No one was injured.

KNOWS HOW

Doctor Had Been Over the Road

When a doctor, who has been the victim of the coffee habit, cures himself by leaving off coffee and taking Postum Food Coffee, he knows something about what he is advising his patients to do.

A good doctor in Ohio, who had at one time been the victim of the coffee habit, advised a woman to leave off coffee and take Postum.

She suffered from indigestion and a weak and irregular heart and general nervous condition. She thought that it would be difficult to stop coffee abruptly. She says: "I had considerable hesitancy about making the change, one reason being that a friend of mine tried Postum and did not like it. The doctor, however, gave explicit directions that Postum was to be taken long enough to bring out the flavor and food value."

"His suggestions were carried out and the delicious beverage fascinated me, so that I had time to inform my friend who had rejected Postum. She is now using it regularly, after she found that it could be made to taste good."

"I observed, a short time after starting Postum, a decided change in my nervous system. I could sleep soundly, and my brain was more active. My complexion became clear and rosy, whereas it had been muddy and spotted before. In fact, all of the abnormal symptoms disappeared and I am now feeling perfectly well."

"Another friend was troubled in much the same manner as I, and she has recovered from her heart and stomach trouble by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee."

"I know of several others who have had much the same experience. It is only necessary that Postum be well boiled and it wins its own way."
