SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

If you care for heavy hair, that glides with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.
 Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scrub robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.
 If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.
 We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?
 A London herald has just died, aged 97, leaving £15,000, no will, and as far as is known, no relatives. For two years he occupied two small rooms over a tailor shop paying 6s 6d week as rent. Before Christmas he was taken to the infirmary suffering from bronchitis. His life was apparently poverty stricken. His sole visitor was an old family servant, who called two or three times a week to look after him. But for his old servant he would probably have starved to death long ago, as on the days when she did not visit him he seemed to eat little or nothing. The man was as sparse with his words as in his mode of living. "Beyond asking the time or replying when I wished him good morning or good afternoon he never said anything to me," said the tailor with whom he lodged. It was suspected that he had some money saved, because of the taxicab drives that he used to take occasionally. That was his only extravagance. One month a taxicab used to take him somewhere for a bath and now and then to the bank.
