While sitting on the veranda of his residence on Monday morning, Mr. D.
 Fisher was taken suddenly ill, the attack being of the same nature as he suffered about a year ago. Then one side of his body was partially paralyzed and this time it was the other side that was affected. His condition was alarming for a time, but the numbness gradually subsided and by evening he was again able to resume his seat on the veranda.
 There were no premonitory symptoms of the attack, and Mr. Fisher had just returned from arranging with a man to work in his garden.
