

CANADA'S DOLLAR AND UNCLE SAM

Latter is Losing More Through Exchange Situation Than is Canada

The superstition that Americans make a profit out of the premium on their funds in Canada dies hard, in spite of the evidence to the contrary. Everyone realizes that Canadian trade with Europe is falling off, due to the depreciation of European funds in Canada. Many of course do not realize that the currency of one country has no legal status in another country, and that a Canadian dollar is not a legal dollar in the United States, but merely a promise to pay a dollar in Canada.

Similarly an American dollar is only a promise to pay, which must be collected in the United States. It is at a premium in Canada because our currency is depreciated to the extent of our inability to redeem our promises to pay in specie. This is no fault of the United States, and they are doing their best to correct it by the purchase of Canadian securities. Of the total Canadian bond sales of $324,914,687 last year more than two thirds, or $223,084,000, were sold in the United States. This does not look as if they were pinching our dollar to hear it squeal. True they hope for a profit from the purchase of these securities, but neither they nor we are in business for fun. They pay the market price and the Canadian sellers are satisfied.

The present premium on New York funds in Canada is a distinct detriment to American trade with Canada, and the fact that a number of hotels and shops in that country are advertising that Canadian money will be accepted at par is sufficient evidence of their desire to retain it, even foregoing a considerable part of their legitimate profit to do so.

Much of the criticism here is on account of the demand for certain classes of American goods in Canada, which helps to swell the balance of trade against us, but this is another matter, due entirely to the belief of the public that they are getting better value in quality or style for their money, and while this belief lasts, so will the trade, unless the course of the premium makes the prices too high. Those who prefer American wares must be willing to buy even at the retail prices in Canada, which must allow for the duty as well as the premium on American funds.—The Financial Post.

One of the reminiscences that former President Taft delights in relates to one of his maiden speeches, in which he came off anything but a hero. The speaker was on that easiest of easy tasks, attacking the Government, when the heckler cried out: "You're wrong, sir!" A little nettled, Mr. Taft continued without heed. Presently, in answer to another strong assertion, came again: "You're wrong, sir!" Angrily addressing the persistent interrupter, Mr. Taft cried, "Look here, I could tell this man something about the Government that would make his hair stand on end!" "You're wrong again, sir!" came from the critic, as, amid the roars of the crowd, he stood up and removed his hat. His head was as bald as a billiard ball.

E. K. LINCOLN THE WEALTHIEST MAN IN THE MOVIES TO BE SEEN HERE IN HIS LATEST PICTURE "THE INNER VOICE"

E. K. Lincoln, who is one of the few motion picture stars who has commanded financial as well as artistic success in moving pictures will appear in the American-Cinema Corporation's super special production of "The Inner Voice" at the Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday, July 13-14.

As far as the story goes, there is much that makes a definite appeal to the heart. It preaches a forceful moral, but unlike many other pictures dealing with the spiritual and moral regeneration of a man, it does not sacrifice the dramatic values for the sake of moral preaching.

Critics everywhere claim that in "The Inner Voice" all the elements upon which the art of the drama has been developed since its early days, are to be found in this production in perfect balance and contrast.

Mr. Lincoln is capably assisted by a well balanced and competent cast. Agnes Ayres is perhaps the most beautiful young woman on the screen to-day. Her acting is true, appealing and adds a sympathetic touch to the drama. William Riley Hatch, has been hailed as one of the greatest character actors on the screen, while Fuller Mellish the veteran Shakespearian player as the good Samaritan supplies the proper pathos to the story.

The vast throngs which have greeted this picture wherever it has been shown is proof that the people are willing to stand behind the project which has as its purpose, the raising of standards in the motion picture field.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE YOUNG

Yells from the nursery brought the mother, who found the baby gleefully pulling Billy's curls.

"Never mind, darling," she comforted, "Baby doesn't know how it hurts."

Half an hour later wild shrieks from the baby made her run again to the nursery.

"Why, Billy," she cried, "What is the matter with baby?"

"Nothing, mother," said Billy, calmly, "only now she knows."—Tit-Bits.

PRESERVING BY FREEZING

The preserving of fresh fruit by freezing will soon become of practical commercial value. The United States Government for several years has been investigating this method, and reports that such fruits as strawberries, raspberries, logan berries, blueberries, currants and cherries are now being frozen.

The process is simple. The fruit in the same crates in which it is marketed is subjected to a temperature of about 10 degrees F. Soft fruit is usually subjected to a lower degree. The fruit can be kept in storage as long as the temperature is maintained. The frozen product must, however, be used as soon as it is thawed, as thawing breaks down the tissues and allows the fruit to decay rapidly. The frozen fruit is in every way comparable to the fresh product.

Freezing does not do away with mould, though it will not develop as long as the fruit remains at the temperatures advised.

SURELY NOT

Inspector: "Do you teach observation?"
Teacher: "Yes."
Inspector: Then I will test the class. Now children, shut your eyes and sit still." Following this the inspector made a slow whistling sort of noise, and followed with, "Now, children, what did I do?"

For some time there was no answer, but ultimately one little boy piped out: "Kissed teacher."

The Ideal Bathtub for Baby

EDDY'S Indurated Fibreware Washbasin is just the thing for baby's bath. Besides being light, easy to handle and unbreakable, it has a surface which cannot cause injury—no cracks, no joints, no nails or rivets. It is moulded in one piece and unlike wood, it cannot splinter or come apart. It is much superior to metal because it cannot dent or rust. Metal tubs quickly absorb heat and are liable to scald baby's skin, even after cold water is added. In a like manner, metal if cold will strike chill to the skin and also cause the water to cool quickly. Eddy's Indurated Fibreware does not radiate heat or cold and is quite safe. For the same reason it keeps the water warm longer.
