Here and There

The Earl of Leitrim, Irish peer, who has been touring Canada, was much struck with the resemblance between north-west Ireland and the maritime provinces, with their wooded hills, sandy beaches and multitude of fish and game, as playgrounds for the tourist.

What is believed to be the largest salmon ever caught by hook and line in waters adjacent to Vancouver, B.C., was landed at Horseshoe Bay, Howe Sound, recently by A. C. Cohen. The fish measured four feet, one inch in length and weighed 64 pounds. It took 35 minutes to land it.

Erwin S. Cobb, the famous American humorist, has been hunting in the St. Maurice valley, served by Canadian Pacific lines. This is by no means his first trip to Canadian hunting and fishing centres, as he is a keen sportsman and has visited the wilds in Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Among the passengers landing at Quebec from the Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Scotland," recently was Miss Margaret Bondfield, M.P., a member of the Cabinet of the MacDonald Government of Great Britain. Miss Bondfield is in Canada to study conditions as they affect female immigrants.

Some interesting facts were made public by E. J. Bellet, superintendent of the fish and game department of the Province of Quebec, when in Montreal recently. The province is now teeming with wild life, he says, mainly because of its conservation policy, whereby preserves are rented to fish and game clubs on the understanding that they appoint wardens. There are 400 such clubs employing a total of over 1,000 wardens.

The Trans-Canada Limited, crack transcontinental express of the Canadian Pacific Railway, completed its last run of the season on September 17th, and will not be operated again until next May. The train, which is the fastest long-distance express in North America, covered 758,748 miles in the season, or three times the distance between the earth and the moon, in its 238 runs, and carried the equivalent of 95,000 passengers for varying distances.

The new wing of the Chateau Lake Louise, the Canadian Pacific Railway's hotel at Lake Louise, one of the choicest beauty spots in the Rockies, is now under construction to replace that portion destroyed by fire some months ago. It will be a nine-storey, fire-proof, steel-frame structure of stucco, brick and stone, richly furnished in the best style of a mountain hotel, and will contain 380 bedrooms, bringing the total in the hotel up to 390.

The Financial Post is a journal that should be read and studied by every citizen interested in the material welfare of Canada. Its contents are always interesting and valuable. Order it through H. P. Davidson, "The Magazine Man", at THE ACADIAN office.

REVEALS SCANDAL

Grave irregularities in regard to contracts for the supply of coal to the various militia buildings in Winnipeg have been found by Royal Commissioner David Campbell of Winnipeg. His report to the Department of National Defence will be referred to the Department of Justice for appropriate action so that the guilty ones will be punished.

PORT WILLIAMS AND VICINITY

Mr. Clarence Horton, of St. John, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Fred Wood.

Mrs. W. H. Tenant and Mrs. D. A. Morrison motored from Amherst on Thursday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hocking.

Mr. and Mrs. Maitland, of Grand Pre, spent Sunday with Mrs. Maitland's sister, Mrs. Geo. Jess, of Belcher Street.

Master Earnest Weaver, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weaver, who has been critically ill this week, is somewhat better. Dr. Elliott, of Wolfville, is in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Rand with Mrs. Alvira Fullerton motored to Amherst on Tuesday, returning on Thursday.

Mrs. Chester Harris, of Wilmet, who will be remembered here as Miss Susie Lockwood, has the sympathy of many old friends in the very sad death of her little five year old girl, who was killed by an automobile on Monday.

A very large number of friends and relatives attended the funeral on Tuesday. Mrs. Mark Regan, with her daughters, Misses Mabel and Queenie, motored from here. The floral offerings were very beautiful and numerous.

Mr. Earl Morton, from Halifax, is visiting at the home of Mr. Edson Griffin.

Miss Fannie Payne spent last week the guest of Mrs. Robert Murphy, Church Street.

The Girl Guides had a very interesting meeting on Saturday afternoon, when Miss Haley, of Wolfville, entertained them with an account of her recent European trip. They were delighted with her talk which was educational as well as entertaining. Mrs. G. A. Chase was their hostess.

Misses Susie and Mary Chase motored to Windsor on Wednesday and attended the exhibition at which the former was fortunate in winning three prizes on fruit.

Mr. F. Daniels, of the Royal Bank staff, spent the week end with his uncle in Truro.

The members of Lily of Valley Division met on Monday evening to reopen for the winter's work. There were not enough present to hold the meeting, the farmers being too busy for a few weeks to attend.

Mrs. Capt. Cogswell, with Mrs. J. E. Gates and Miss Chapman of Acadia Seminary, motored to Halifax on Wednesday, taking in the Windsor exhibition on the way.

Mr. Allan Beanson, of Middleton, on his way from the Truro exhibition spent last Friday with his cousin, Mr. Arthur Beanson. This was the fifth exhibition at which he had exhibited and carried off prizes from the products of his farm. He was a Port Williams boy, his former home being where Mr. Faulkner now lives. He specializes on fruit and vegetables, winning at St. John the silver cup on best showing of vegetables.

Mr. Kenneth Chipman, who is visiting his brother, Rev. O. N. Chipman, at the parsonage, gave a most interesting and instructive lecture on his three years work in the Arctic, illustrated by lantern slides. Mr. Chipman had taken these pictures for the government and they were of very high order. The evening was rainy and unpleasant but quite a large audience assembled and enjoyed the lecture.

Miss J. Goldie Haverstock, who has been spending the summer months with her sister, Mrs. J. Romans, English Corner, Halifax county, returned home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Thomas and little daughter Marjorie, who spent the month of September visiting relatives in Melanson and Port Williams, have returned to their home in Halifax county.

Miss S. M. Borden, of Boston, is visiting her old home at Town Plot. Her many relatives and friends are glad to welcome her back.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Haverstock and family, of Halifax, motored to Port Williams on Sunday, Sept. 28th, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Haverstock, Fairview Farm.

LADIES' FALL and WINTER COATS

THE SORT YOU EXPECT TO PAY $50.00 FOR.

So extraordinary are the values offered in these fur-trimmed coats that last week our range of sizes was badly depleted and many were disappointed. Fortunately, a wire brought a rush shipment along Tuesday morning. Among these are several new styles in Balsam Green, Camel, Taupe and Grey.

MRS. MARGARET LOCKWOOD

The death of Mrs. Margaret Lockwood, aged 84 years, occurred on Thursday evening, Oct. 2nd, following a short illness resulting from a fall.

Her girlhood home was Falmouth but she had lived here for many years. Her husband Chas. Lockwood, preceded her in 1877. She is survived by three daughters, Misses Francis, Jean and Alice, from whom for years she has received devoted care and attention.

She was a member of St. John's (Episcopal) church and when not able to go so far was always a regular attendant at the Baptist church of Port Williams and interested in all its activities.

Her quiet disposition and unfeigned bright spirit made her an unusual favorite, and she will be missed by her friends as well as her immediate family.

The funeral was held from her late residence on Sunday afternoon. A large number of relatives and friends gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to one who had spent a long life in the vicinity and had won many warm friends by her kindness of manner.

The many friends of Miss Lockwood will be interested in the following clipping taken from the September issue of "Canadian Drygoods" and "Women's Wear":

Miss L. M. Hanson, recently with Scougal's Ready-to-Wear Ltd., Oshawa, Ont., has taken charge of the new Fashion Shoppe, Stratford, Ont. Miss Hanson, who comes from Port Williams, Nova Scotia, has had a wide experience in women's wear stores and will undoubtedly be successful in her new position.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thomas, Halifax county, are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Haverstock, Fairview Farm.
