SALE OF ALBERT RAILWAY.—The Albert Railway was sold today (Thursday) being bid in by A. A. Stockton Esq. for the English bondholders. The price paid was $60,000.

MONTHS AGO.—In order to prove our statement that typhoid fever was not prevalent in Hillsboro Nov. 1st, the Maple Leaf last week referred to a death which occurred Sept. 6th. What fever cases of last September have to do with the present time will not be apparent to any but the brilliant Maple Leaf editor.

CHRISTMAS CARDS and all foreign Christmas Papers are completely put in the shelves in Canada this year by the publication of the grandest Christmas Paper ever published. Those who know say the Christmas Number of the Montreal Star will take the public completely by storm.

MISS V. M. Dohson, of Stony Creek, was in St. John last week purchasing a stack of goods. She has opened a new Millinery store on Main St., Moncton, lately vacated by Miss Ellen Wright. Having secured the services of one of the best and most practical milliners in the province and having a carefully selected stock of the latest and newest styles, she cannot fail to receive an extensive patronage at once.

STOUCHEM AT LAST.—B. B. Smith Esq., the popular postal clerk on the Albert Railway, who some of the young set began to fancy had an adamantine heart, has at last been drawn from the dismal state of bachelorhood into the blissful benediction ranks. He returned last Monday from Amosbury, Mass., with his bride, one of New Horton's fairest daughters. They expect to locate at Harvey Bank where they will be "At Home" to their friends on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings during December. The OBSERVER congratulates and extends best wishes to the happy couple.

JUDGES OF PROBATES.—The Provincial Government has dismissed Geo. H. Steadman Esq. from the office of Judge of Probates for Albert County and appointed W. A. Trueman Esq. of Albert in his stead. Mr. Trueman, who already has the portly and dignified deportment so essential to judges, will no doubt make an impartial and efficient official and the OBSERVER tenderly officiates.

The Maple Leaf appears to think Mr. Steadman deserves his fate and perhaps did for patronizing that unstable, unreliable, incontinent, unprincipled, "hoodlum" as largely as he did. So long as Mr. S. had "Probate Notices" to furnish the Maple Leaf he was everything to be desired but now, alas, the "scene is changed." Steadman is justly punished while Judge Trueman, who, as returning officer of a certain election, was so corrupt, dishonest, and altogether bad in the Maple Leaf's eyes, has suddenly been transformed into a respected, honorable Judge. Verily, "Lovey" dear for double-shuff, back-action, taro-the-coat, political gymnastics show don't "take the cake."

Harvey Notes.

For the first time this season snow fell in Harvey on the 9th inst. It came fast and faster until streets, fields and mountain side were carpeted in white.

But by noon on the following day it had altogether disappeared; and now neither east, west, north or south does the eye rest on one spot of snow.

Mr. Allan Bishop has for some time been working on Mr. Scott Pearson's house. Mr. Job Pearson expects to move his family into it this fall.

The Harvey Baptist S. School gave on Sunday evening last, a grand Harvest Concert.

Last Thursday Miss Laura Robinson went to St. John and returned on Saturday.

Mr. David Wilbur has dug a drain from his cellar about 100 yards through the field of Mr. McLeod. He also tried an under-drain in his garden but found the fall to be only about 4 inches in 100 feet. Abandoning this he is now collar a drain from the garden into the cellar to connect with the drain running there from.

The schooner La Dora, Parker, of Margareville, N. S., is in with apples. The sale seems slow.

It is reported that the enterprising firm of Graves & Foster intend chartering the La Dora for a load of coal. This, it is to be hoped, is time, as for the last few years people have almost perished before winter coal arrived.

Mrs. Wm. Brewster arrived home last Friday from New London, Conn., after an absence of several months.

After halting between two opinions for quite a time Mr. B. R. Smith has summoned courage to join the benedictine. On Monday last he and his bride arrived on the 14.45 train and immediately drove to his father's residence.

Mr. David Wilbur has the contract for re-shingling a part of the school-house and has begun the work.

Mrs. Dr. Jump, after doing excellent work at the Bank, has gone to Corral and there has a large class in painting.

High Priced Cots.

W. F. Todd sold to J. J. Clegg of Lexington, Kentucky, the choicest pig by Panocost, dam Adelle Gould. This little pig is bred in the same blood line as the phenomenal Patron, 2,144, and was foaled on July 19th. The price $3,000, is the largest ever paid for a suckling cot in Canada. The same gentleman offered $10,000 for Daisy Hartshorn. Mr. Todd has been offered $13,000 for the same mare and of course the offer was promptly refused. There is no doubt that the best brood mares in Canada are stable at the Oak Point stock farm.—Courier.

"Wooden-Headed."

When a wooden pavement was desired outside St. Paul's cathedral, Sidney Smith said: "If the canon will simply put his hands together, the thing is done!" They were not half so wooden-headed, however, as it would be to deny the merit of Dr. E. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has cured many thousands of liver diseases, impure blood, King's-corn, salt rheum, dropsy, chronic affections of the throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs, asthma, catarrh, influenza, neuritis, dyspepsia, constipation, and all skin diseases. Druggists.

A New Sect.

The ministers from whom fellowship has been withdrawn by the Baptist and Free Christian Baptist conferences, met in the main street Baptist church, Woodstock, last week. As the result of a three days' meeting they have organized a new denomination to be known as the Reformed Baptist Church. The form of doctrine agreed on is very similar to that of F. C. Baptists, except that their views of sanctification are especially stated therein, and that baptism is either formal or that of immersion will be special cases and by vote of the church accepted. The church organized at Woodstock will have G. W. McDonald for pastor. Other churches will be organized in other parts in a short time.—Ex.

Give Us More of the N. P.

Canada is prospering, notwithstanding the croakers, as she has never done before. The policy of encouraging home industries has been a success. The proof of it is in the growth of its manufacturing centers like Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, and Quebec. The farmers, too, are better off than before the N. P. was inaugurated.

What is the legitimate inference? That the N. P. ought to be extended so as to encourage industries that have not yet felt the stimulus that well-directed protection affords. There are any amount of goods and manufactured articles that we import that ought to be made at home and which a small advance in tariff would bring about. The government at Ottawa, it is said, and Mr. Foster, if equal to the situation as Minister of Finance, will both be moving in this direction.

More home industries mean larger cities, better home markets for the farmer, better wages for work people, and work for the unemployed.

National Policy as regards the tariff, as well as regards our relations to our neighbor, is the cry!

As for Toronto it has simply gone forward by leaps and bounds since the inauguration of the N. P., and if the N. P. is only continued and strengthened our population will be half a million in the year 1900.—Toronto World.

If We Knew.

If we knew, when walking thoughtless through the noisy crowded way, That some party of wondrous whiteness Close beside our pathway lay, We would pause where now we hasten, Lest our careless feet should trample Some rare jewel to the ground.

If we knew what forms were fainting For the shade that we should fling, If we knew what lips were paroling For the water we could bring, We would taste with eager footsteps, We would work with willing hands, Bearing cups of cooling water, Planting rows of shading palms.

If we knew what lives are darkened, Which had over lain among them, Like the frost among the flowers, Oh, with what sincere repentings, With what anguish we regret, While our eyes were overlooking, We would cry, forgive! forgive!

If we knew? Alas! I do not know Whether bitter herbs or roses In our neighbor's garden grow, God forgive us! lest hereafter Our hearts break to hear him say: Careless child, I never knew you, From my presence, go away.

Catarrah, Catarrhal Deafness, Hay Fever.

A New Home Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and catarrhal tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (white) this remedy is a specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SON, 308 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should carefully read the above. Nov. 1, 1888.

Somebody.

Somebody's coming into the world, Somebody's leaving it, somebody weeps, Somebody's barge on life's stream is whirled.

Somebody gaily glides over the deeps, Somebody, somewhere, is laughing to-night, Somebody's singing while somebody sighs, Somebody, somewhere, is quaffing the brim.

Fruit of the grape—while somebody dies, Somebody's heart is bursting with joy, Somebody's starting somewhere alone, Somebody's suffering for somebody's boy, Somebody's praying and maketh no moan, Somebody's hand is lifted on high—

Somebody's heart is riven in twain, Somebody, somewhere, hears somebody cry, And the river flows smoothly again.

Somebody's dirge is sung by the waves, Somebody never more sorrow will know, Somebody's Dame Fortune's fickleness grieves, Somebody's soul's as pure as the snow, Somebody's hearts as black as the night, Somebody's eyes are closed 'neath the sod, Somebody's soul was too weak for the gold, And so it is eered upward—to God.
