WEDDING REMEMBERED
Mr. and Mrs. Simon McLeod were well in health and on Wednesday, the 4th anniversary of their marriage, some very congratulatory letters and cards were received. A substantial cheque and an elegant bouquet of forty-five carnations, from their children showed that the latter, although scattered, had not forgotten their parents. In the evening a W. C. T. U. delegation, consisting of Messdames Rundle, Troy, Hayward, Miller, Lewis, Nicholson, Follansbee, Sargeant, Shaw, Robertson, Crocker, Bell, Clarke, Falconer, Sculimber, Russell, Gough and Wylie, Misses McGregory, Pedolin, McLeod, Cranmond, Rundle, Russell and Hosiard, Messrs. James and Sheridan Troy and Cecil Monroseau called upon Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, and, with Mrs. Rundle as spokeswoman, presented them with an address.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

AN EXPERIENCED HOUSEWIFE knows that Sunlight Soap means a wonderful saving of time and labour in house-cleaning.

Whether with hot or cold water, nothing gets the dirt off so quickly and without injury as Sunlight Soap.

Use it the Sunlight way. Follow the directions.

Even people who are usually healthy occasionally require some kind of a food tonic. Ferrovim, that excellent combination of beef, iron and sherry wine, if taken when the system is run down from over work or a slight cold, will prevent a more serious illness. Ferrovim gives strength to convalescents and all thin-blooded people. $1.00 a bottle.

CORNELIUS REGAN.
The death of Cornelius Regan, an aged resident of 10, occurred Thursday morning. Deceased was nearly 70 years of age, and up to taking a stroke of paralysis in his left side ten weeks ago last Monday, was hale and hearty and an active and valued employee at D. & J. Ritchie's mill. Since then he had been helpless and confined to his bed, at the residence of his son Patrick Regan, with whom he boarded during the season of mill work. In winter he lived with Mrs. Thomas Young, on the North West Miramichi. He was a much respected citizen and a faithful member of St. Mary's church. The widow of deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Nora Donovan, died nine years ago. Both she and her husband were natives of Ireland. Mr. Regan leaves the following children to mourn his loss: Dennis and John, in Wisconsin; James and Patrick, Newcastle; Mrs. Michael Young and Mrs. Thomas Young of North Esk. Funeral took place at St. Mary's church this afternoon at two o'clock a goodly concourse following the remains to their last resting place.
