MR. PARKIN'S ARRIVAL. Interviewed at Montreal on Imperial Matters. (Montreal Herald.) A tall, spare man of a distinctly scholarly type of countenance was among the curious-looking crowd which thronged the Windsor round the other evening. He was dressed in the plain gray and black of the gentleman, and he wore a very English top hat, slightly on the back of his head. He looked like an English professional man—in one respect at least—and that is exactly what he was. Geo. R. Parkin was the gentleman in question, and the name will be so well known to Montreal readers that any further introduction would be unnecessary.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES. Soft Gingerbread. This recipe requires the following ingredients: One cupful molasses, one teaspoonful soda, one tablespoonful ginger, half a teaspoonful salt, one-third to one-half cupful of butter or drippings, softened, one cupful milk, three cupfuls pastry flour. Mix in the order given, and bake in shallow pans or gem pans in a moderate oven about thirty minutes.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES. Hot Water Gingerbread. For this recipe there are necessary the following ingredients: One cupful molasses, one teaspoonful soda, one tablespoonful ginger, half a teaspoonful salt, one-third to one-half cupful of butter or drippings, softened, one cupful milk, three cupfuls pastry flour. Mix in the order given. Beat well, and bake in a deep cake pan or in patty pans.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES. Rich Gingerbread. Take the following ingredients: Six cupfuls of flour, three of molasses, one cupful of cream, one of butter, two eggs, one teaspoonful of soda, two teaspoonfuls of ginger. Add the soda and ginger to the molasses, next the butter, softened, the eggs, well beaten, milk and flour. Bake in deep tins in a moderate oven.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES. Sour Milk Gingerbread. This recipe requires the following ingredients: Half cupful molasses, half teaspoonful of soda, half teaspoonful of ginger, one tablespoonful ginger, half cupful sugar, one cupful sour milk, two and a quarter cupfuls pastry flour with another half teaspoonful of soda mixed in it. Bake in shallow pans or gem pans.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES. No. 1.—The following ingredients are needed: Three-fourths pound butter, one and one-fourth pound sugar, six eggs, one teaspoonful soda dissolved in three tablespoonfuls milk, one tablespoonful ginger, two pounds flour. Cream the butter, add the sugar and beaten eggs, and beat well. Sift in the ginger, soda, and flour, and add the flour. Roll half an inch thick, or thin as a wafer, and cut in small rounds.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES. No. 2.—This requires the following ingredients: Two cupfuls molasses, one cupful butter, one tablespoonful ginger, one cupful sugar, one cupful flour, one cupful milk, one cupful water, one cupful soda. Dissolve the soda in the water, and mix very stiff. Heat (not boil) the molasses and butter; when the butter is melted add the ginger, soda, and flour. Roll very thin, cut out, and bake in a quick oven.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES. Ginger Snaps. The following are the requisite ingredients: One cupful molasses, half a cupful sugar, one tablespoonful ginger, one cupful flour, one cupful butter, one cupful water, one cupful soda. Dissolve the soda in the water, and mix very stiff. Heat (not boil) the molasses and butter; when the butter is melted add the ginger, soda, and flour. Roll very thin, cut out, and bake in a quick oven.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES. Soft Molasses Cookies. The following ingredients are needed: One cupful molasses, one tablespoonful ginger, one teaspoonful soda, two table spoonfuls warm water or milk, half a cupful butter, softened, flour to mix stiff. Dissolve the soda in the water, and mix very stiff. Heat (not boil) the molasses and butter; when the butter is melted add the ginger, soda, and flour. Roll very thin, cut out, and bake in a quick oven.

PROTECTION AND THE LUMBER INDUSTRY. (Montreal Herald.) Last week news was sent from Fort William that the first shipment of Canadian lumber had been made from that port for Chicago. At the same time we learn from the American newspapers that the output of lumber on the Saginaw river during the month of August last was the smallest in twenty years.

THE MISSING CARD. Mr. Cook Swallowed it With his Chew of Tobacco and won $10,000. When Denver was but a small place it was the rendezvous for the great players. There was a banker there at the time by the name of Cook, who had an abundance of cash and who could handle the cards like an expert. Jerome B. Chaffee, at one time United States Senator from Colorado, with two or three others who used to play with Cook a good deal, connected a little scheme by which they figured they could have a grad deal of fun at Cook's expense and at the same time get a champagne supper out of him. So Chaffee and his companions, who had plenty of money, and who had suffered financially by being caught in a good many jackpots that Cook had opened, arranged among themselves that the very next time they played with Cook they would show him a trick he would not forget in a hurry.
