The Hour Of Victory.

(Corcluded.)

He would not be injuring any one for George Coulson could easily pay ens the bones, reduces the power of his way through any college. He resistance to disease and the capacity himself deserved the prize. In all for recovery, and develops into con faireness it belonged to him; he had sumption. earned it. Fate had thrown the manuscript at his feet : he would be a fool not to ake advantage of it.

Thus he reasoned as the moments passed. He knew that this reasoning was false, that only one way lay could not bear to look that way.

Then he thought of the morning at Mass, the soft radiance of the candles the fragrance of the flowers. and the words of entreaty, 'Son give Me thy heart.' He rose to his feet and began to pace the room. Before his mind swept the thought of what it would mean to give up the paper. There in the valley lay the mille. If he did not win the scholarship next

I cannot do it be declared paswill throw it back where I found it in the rain. Let someone else find it in the morning.'

bim in surprise.

you Joe?' ' No mother; the walk will do me good. He felt miserably guilty as he the loss of his soul?' now the unceasing obant: 'What doth it profit a man ?'

'There will be no halfway with Joe; be will be very good or very marked; this night work is killing bad,' his mother had prophesied that me.' One day his son said to him: night over her sewing, and now as | Let me work instead of you, papa. she stood by the window she thought You know that I can write like you, of it again and, unconscious as she and fairly well.' 'No, my son; you was of the struggle going on, she must study. Your school is a much whispered a prayer: God grant it more important thing than my may be the right way !

She waited anxiously as the mo- again. ments passed, 'What can be keeping him?' she wondered.

asked wearily.

unsolved mystertes.

Joseph Darcy. He had made bis out Mr. Wilson spoke of the Davis scholarship, He said :

the themes in the contest for the animous consent to Joseph Darey.

took possession of the hall.

'Darcy | Darcy | Darcy |' echoed strange how much oil has been used on every side. Oheer after cheer in this house lately !' This was a rang out, the class president leading shock to Giulio; but the conversathe wild tumult. Mr. and Mrs. Darcy tion ceased there, and the nocturnal stood unashamed of the tears of joy labor proceeded. in their eyes as Toe was carried by the popular choice. 'Our Joe's hour morning fatigued, and when he was of victory,' said Mr. Darcy proadly, but Joe, carried as a hero through the throng, flushed with triumph. knew in his heart that this was not his hour of victory. That had come on that Sunday evening in the drizzling rain, when he had fought perhaps the greatest temptation of his life-and won-Margaret E. Donnellman in The Magnificat,

Minard's Liniment cures Neuralgia.

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofulaas ugly as ever since time immemorial It causes bunches in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weak-

"Two of my children had scrofula sore which kept growing deeper and kept then from going to school for three months intments and medicines did no good uni straight and true before him, but be Hood's Sarsaparilla will rid you of it, radically and per manently, as it has rid thousands.

Giulio's Secret.

(By Edmondo De Amicis. - Adapted for the Ave Maria.)

He was a graceful Florentine lad month he would be there to work, to of twelve with black hair and a white commence what to him would be a face, -the eldest son of a railroad employee, who, having a large family And for what? That George Coul. and but small pay, lived in straitened son the insufferable snob, who had oircumstances. His father loved him more thanoncecheated him of honors, and was tolerably kind and indulgent who had mocked him and encered at to him, - indulgent in everything him should have yet one more honor. except in that which referred to school. On this point he required a simpately. 'I cannot give it up. I great deal, and showed himself severe, because he desired his son to attain such a grade as would enable him soon to obtain a place and help He put on his raincost, concealed his family; and in order to socomthe manuscript beneath and went plish anything quickly, it was necesdown the stairs. His mother was sary that he should work a great deal ju tgoing to bed, and she looked at in a very short time. And although the lad studied hard, his father was Is there any thing I can do for always exhorting him to study

His fa ber was advanced in years. and too much toil had aged him before the time. Nevertheless in order walked on. He knew that his mother to provide for the necessities of his would wait up for him and he tried family in addition to the toil which to burry, but a thought which pre- his occupation imposed upon bim, he sistently tried to be uppermost in his obtained special work here and there mind, caused his footsteps to slacken. as a copyist, and passed a good part It was the words of little Ted's cate of the night at his writing - table. chism: 'What doth it profiit a man,' Lately be had undertaken, in behalf it chanted, 'if he gain the whole of a house which published journals world? What doth it profit a man if and books in parts, to write upon he gain the whole world and suffer the parcels the names and addresses of their subscribers : and he earned Over and over again the words re- three lire (sixty-cents) for every five peated themselves. On one side hundred of these wrappers, written bright dreames of the future, on the in large and regular character. But complained of it to his family at

> My eyes are giving out,' he rewrappers. Do not mention it to me

The son knew that it was useless to insist on such a matter with his At last she heard his welcome loot- father, and he did not persist; but steps on the stairs, and he stood be- this is what he did. He knew that fore her, calm and pale as one who exactly at midnight his father stophad passed through a terrible strug- ped writing, and quitted his workroom to go to bed. One night he 'Is your head better, Joe,' she waited until the latter was asleep, then dressed himself quietly, and 'Yes thank you,' he replied stole to the workroom. He relighted the Petroleum lamp, seated himself The next morning Davis Academy at a writing table where lay a pile was alive with excitement. George of white wrappers and the list of ad-Coolson's manuscrip: had been found dresses, and began to write, imitating in the letter box outside the door of exactly his fatner's handwriting. his house when the morning mail And he wrote with a will, gladly, a was taken in. Of how it came there, little in fear, and the wrappers piled there was not the slightest clue, All up; and from time to time he dropsorts of stories spread about, but it ped the pen to rub his hands, and gradually aubsided into one of the began again with increasing alsority, listening and smiling. He wrote a Perhaps Mrs. Darcy had a slight hundred and sxty-one lira! Then suspection of the truth, but she kept he stopped, placed the pen where he found it extinguished the light and

And there was no half way with went back to bed on tiptoe, At noon that day his father came silent renunciation, and he wasted no home to dinner in better spirits than time in idle regrets. In the two usual. He had perceived nothing. weeks which intervened before He did his copying mechanically, graduation a new manbood grew up measuring it by the hour, and thinkwithin him, which rose superior to ing of something else, and only on George Coulson's sneers. He put the following day counted the wrapaside that wonderful dream, and with pers he had written. He seated hima steady purpose faced the future, self at the table in fine humor, and slapping his son on the shoulder, Graduation day came and never said to him : 'Eb, Giulio ! Your fatbefore had the hall been so crowded, her is even a tetter workman than When the diplomas had been given you thought. In two hours I dld a good third more work than usual ast night. My hand is still nimble, Graduates and friends, it gives and my eyes still do their duty. me great pleasure to announce that And Giulio was silent but content. Encouraged by these good results, Davis sholarship were all of excel- when night came and twelve o'clock lent merit; but the prize goes by un- struck, the boy rose once more and set to work. And this be did for One moment of overwhelming several nights, Meantime his father suprise, and then the senior class noticed nothing; only once at supper he uttered this exclamation. 'It is Now, by reason of breaking his on the shoulders of his classmates, sleep every night, Giulio did not get their delighted cheers attesting to sufficient rest; and he rose in the > is almost the worse thin, consumptives. Many of the "just-as-good" preparations contain as much as 20% of alcohol; Scott's Emulsion not a drop. Insist on having he had difficulty in keeping his eyes open one evening, for the first time in bis life, he fell asleep over his copy book.

'Wake up my boy l' cried hi father, clapping his hands. To work.' He shook himself and set to work again. But the next evening and on the days following the same thing occurred, and worse. He dozed over his books, he rose later than nanal. he studied his lessons in a languid way, he seemed disgusted with study. His father began to observe this, then to reflect seriously, and at last to re-

'Giulio,' he said to him one morning, what on earth has come over quickly you? You are no longer as you used to be. It is a grief and a disappoint- "When in ment to me.' But at dinner, on the evening of became s that very same day, his father said, pain, I ha with much cheerfulness: Do you advised me to try Dr. Fowler's Extract know that this month I have earned of Wild Strawberry, so on my way home thirty-two lire more at addressing I bought a bottle, and after taking four those wrappers than last month?' doses I was cured. We always keep a And so saying he drew from under bottle in the house. We have also used the table a package of sweets, which be had bought that he might celebrate with his children this extraordinary profit; and all bailed it with clapping of bands. Then Giulie, who had half decided to tell his father all, have handed out some other preparation, said: 'No! I will make greater efforts to work during the day, but I The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toro shall continue to work at night for Out. father and the rest.' And his father added: 'Thirtystwo lire more! I a great pleasure in his heart. And he continued to work by main went to make inquiries of the teacher and the latter observed : 'Yes he gets on because he is intellegent; but he no longer has the good will which he had at first. He is drowsy, he yawns, his mind is distracted. He writes short compositions, scribbled down in all haste, in bad chirography. Oh, he could do a great deal better if he wanted to !'

had ever heard. Giulio, you see how I toil, how I am wearing out my life for the family. You do not second my efforts. You have no heart for me nor for your brothers nor for your mother.

'Ab, no, don't say that father !' eried the son bursting into tears, and opening his mouth to confess all. But his father interrupted him, saying :

'You are aware of the condition of he family ; you know that good will and sacrifice on the part of all are necessary. I myself, as you see have had to double my work. I counted on a gift of a hundred lire from the railway company this month, and this morning I have learned that I shall receive nothing.

At this information Giulio reprewed the confession which was the point of escaping from his soul, and papa, I shall tell nothing; I shall like dogs. guard my sporet for the sake of being able to work for you. I will recom- another husband, but you won't git pense you in another way for the another dorg like 'im. prow which I occasion you; I will tudy enough at school to win promotion. The important point is to killing you.

nore passed, of labor by night and weakness by day; of desperate efforts on the part of the son, and of bitter eproaches on the part of the father. But the worst of it was that the latter grew gradually colder toward the boy addressing him only rarely, as though he had been a recreant son of whom there was nothing any onger to be expected, and almost avoided meeting his glance. And sentiment of sad and dutiful tenderness; and between sorrow and fatigue he grew thin and pale, and he was constrained still further to neg lect his studies. But he understood well that there nust be an end to it some day, and every evening he said to himself, "1 will not get up tonight' but when the clock struck twelve, at the mo- Suffered With ment when he should have vigorously reaffirmed his resolution, he felt remorse; it seemed to him by remainng in bed be should be failing in a nty, and robbing his father and the family of a lirs. And he rose think ing, that some night his father would wake up and discover the depention by accident-by counting the wrap-

Giulio my dear how do you feel ?'

(Concluded in our next.)

and weak than usual, she said! from 10 p.m. until 6 a.m., and now feel Giulio. you are ill. And then, turning to his father, with anxiety; Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. · Giulio is ill. See how pale he is !

this Railway will run as follows:

| 10 Quit Work | 23.79 | Read J | Down | | THE SE A SHARE | | | Read T | Jp |
|--|----------------|--------------|-----------|-----------------|-----------------------------|-----------|----------------|-----------|-----------|
| THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE | Dly | Dly | Dly | Dly | | 1 | Dly | Dlv | D |
| cea, especially if left to run any | Sun | ex Sun | ex Sun | ex Sun | interestant a 7 | 1994/191 | ex Sun | ex Sun | 0 |
| time, causes great weakness, | A.M | P.M | A.M | A.M | STATIONS | A.M | A.M | P.M | St P. |
| on its first appearance. You | 11 05 12 20 | 4 00 | | | Charlottetown ar | 9 55 | 11 40 | | 91 |
| that a few doses of Dr. Fowler's | 1 04 | 5 04 5 41 | | 8 38 9 06 | Hunter River Emerald | 8 38 7 45 | 10 38 10 04 | 5 25 | 8 |
| of Wild Strawberry will do this and effectively. Mr. Jno. R. | 1 42 2 15 | 6 11 6 40 | s. Sa | 9 30 9 50 ar | Kensington Summerside ly | | 9 33 9 00 | 4 47 | 8 7 |
| ouse, Orillia, Ont., writes: | p.m | 7 50 8 48 | | | Summerside ar Port Hill | (see al.) | 8 45 7 46 | р,т | 4 |
| n Fort William, last summer, I | | 9 37 | | 2 40 | O'Leary | | 6 57 | | 2 |
| en sick with diarrhoes, and to weak and suffered such great | 41 | 10 50 p.m | | 4 35 ar | Tignish lv | | 5 45 a.m | | 12 p 1 |
| ad to quit work. Our manager | - | a-7 - 65 | 11 | S CROMED. | eng noù salas hagnet | 4 10h | et hair | | Γ. |

and

P.M P.M

it for our children, and find it an excellent Price 35 cents. When you go to get a bottle of "Dr. Fowler's," insist on being given what you ask for, as we know of many cases where unscrupulous dealers The genuine is manufactured only by check it will find

am satisfied. But that boy there'- a police judge, charged with stealing pointing to Giulio- is not much chickens. He pleaded guilty and comfort to me.' And the little fellow received sentence, when the judge received the reprimand in silence, asked how it was be managed to forcing back two tears which tried lift those chickens right under the to flow: but at the same time he felt window of their owner's house when there was a dog in the yard. 'His wouldn't be of no use, judge, proe, but fatigue added to fatigue said the culprit, 'to try to 'splain dis rendered it ever more difficult for him thing to you at all. Ef you was to to keep up. Thus things went on try it, like as not you would git yer for two months. The father continua hide full o' shot, an' git no chickens, ed to reproach his son, and to gaze neither. Ef you want to engage in at him with eyes that grew con- any rascality, judge, yo' bettah stick stantly more wrathful. One day he to de bench, whar yo' am familiar.

St. Joseph, Levis, July 14, 1913 MINARD'S LINIMENT Co., Limited. GENTLEMEN,-I was badly kicked by my horse last May and after using several preparations on my leg nothing would do. My leg was black as jet. I was laid up in bed for a fortnight and could not walk. After That evening the father took the ARD'S LINIMENT I was perfectly son aside, and spoke to him words oured, so that I could start on the road_

JOS. DUBES. Commercial Traveler.

Beware Of Worms.

Don't let worms gnaw at the vitals your children. Give them Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup and they'll soon e rid of these parasites. Price 25c.

Mrs. Outertown-My husband is so busy I've come in to buy a tire or our car. Why are you in town? Mrs. Naybor-Oh, I've come in o buy attire for myself.

Minard's Liniment cures Dandruff.

'I know he's a darling, but I'm repeated resolutely to bimself: No, afraid it's no use. Mg husband dosen't

'You buy 'im lydy. You can get

W. H. Wilkinson, Stratford, Ont, says :- "It affords me much pleasure selp you to earn our living, and to to say that I experienced great relief elieve you of the fatigue which is from Muscular Rheumatism by using two boxes of Milburn's Rheumatic And so he went on, and two months Pills. Price a box 50c.

> Little Joe-Mamma, I was awful afraid when you shut me in the dark Mamma - Why Joe, what were you afraid of? Little Joe-I was afraid I couldn't find the cake.

Mary Ovington, Jasper, One Giulio perceived this and suffered writes :- "My mother had a badly from it; and when his father's back sprained arm. Nothing we used was turned he threw him a furtive did her any good. Then father kiss, stretching forth his face with a got Hagyard's Yellow Oil and it cured mother's arm in a few days. Price 25 cents."

> He-I must apologize for not turning up at your party last night. She-Oh, weren't you there?

Nerve Trouble FOR TWO YEARS

IMPOSSIBLE FOR HIM TO SLEEP

Mr. Chas. W. Wood, 34 Torrance St., Montreal, Que., writes:—"For two years had suffered with nerve trouble, and it pers twice,—and then all would come to a natural end, without any act of his will, which he did not feel the courage to exert. And he went on.

But one evening at supper his father said something which was decisivie, so far as he was concerned. His mother looked at him; and, as it seemed to ber that he was more ill and weak than usual, she said;

I had suffered with nerve trouble, and it was impossible for me to sleep. It did not matter what time I went to bed, in the morning I was even worse than the might before. I consulted a doctor, and he gave me a tonic to take a half hour before going to bed. It was all right for a time, but the old trouble returned with greater force than before. One of the boys who works with me, gave me half a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I took them, and I got such satisfaction that I got another box, and before I finished it I could enjoy aleep from 10 p.m. until 6 a.m. and now feel

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are

Prince Edward Island Railway. Spring & Summer Weather

Commencing on June 3rd, 1912, trains on

| | Read J | Down | alaryota 2 | er and the second | | | Read T | Jp |
|---|--|--------------------------------|---|---|----------------------|--|-----------------------------|--|
| Dly ex Sun A.M | Dly ex Sun P.M | Dly ex Sun A.M | Dly ex Sun A.M | STATIONS | A.M | Dly ex Sun A.M | Dly ex Sun P.M | Dly ex Sun P.M |
| 11 05 12 20 1 04 1 42 2 15 p.m | 4 00 5 04 5 41 6 11 6 40 7 50 8 48 9 37 10 50 p m | ener I see So sont al | 8 38 9 06 9 30 9 50 ar 12 00 lv 1 23 2 40 | Charlottetown ar Hunter River Emerald Kensington Summerside lv Summerside ar Port Hill O'Leary Tignish lv | 9 55 8 38 7 45 | 11 40 10 38 10 04 9 33 9 00 8 45 7 46 6 57 5 45 a.m | 5 25 4 47 4 15 p,m | 9 50 8 55 8 26 8 00 7 42 4 55 3 26 2 10 12 15 p m |

| The state of the s | | |
|--|---------------------------|----------------|
| 8 30 9 20 | Lv Emerald June | Ar 7 40 |
| P M | Ar Cape Traverse | Lv 6 50 A.M |
| A M P.M | | A.M.P.M. |
| 6 45 3 20 | Lv Charlottetown | Ar 8 15 5 20 |
| 8 15 4 30 | Mt. Stewart | 7 15 3 45 |
| 9 20 5 17 | St. Peters | 6 29 2 32 |
| 10 50 6 20 | Ar Souris | 5 30 1 10 |
| A.M.P.M | No. 34 E SAFIT | A.M. P.M. |
| Francis sandagens. | as and malanas the second | |
| P.M A.M | Part In salting | A.M P.M |
| 4 30 8 15 | Ly Mount Stewart | Ar 7 05 3 35 |
| 5 19 9 25 | Oardigan | 6 16 2 28 |
| 5 40 9 54 | Montagne | 5 54 2 00 |
| 6 15 10 35 | Ar Georgetown | Lv 5 20 1 15 |
| Dly Sat | Control of the Control | Sat Dly |

H. McEWEN, Supt. P. E. I. Railway.

Sun

A.M AM

Ar 9 25 9 35

*Lv 6 40 6 00

Lv Charlottetown

Ar Murray Harbor

Largest Assortment, Lowest Prices.

WHOLESALE and RETAIL > TRANSPORTED TO THE TRANSPORT TO THE TOTAL TO THE TOTAL

BIG DISCOUNTS TO CLEAR

We should have many weeks of Hammock Weather yet, and to clear out the balance of our splendid stock of

HAMMOCKS

We will give a discount of 25 p.c. off our already low prices. It will pay you to buy a Hammock now and put it away for next year. Only 36 left and prices range from $1 to $6.50 each; all new stock. Hammocks will be higher next year, but we are not going to carry any over.

CO., Ltd.

Spring and Summer weather calls for prompt attention

Repairing, Cleaning and Making of Clothing,

Next door to Dr. Conroy's Office, where we shall be pleased to see all our friends.

FIRE NSURANCE.

Royal Insurance Company of Liverpool, G. B.

Sun Fire offices of London. Fidelity Phenix Fire Insurance Co. of New York.

Combined Assets $100,000,000

Lowest rates and prompt settlement of Losses.

JOHN MACBACHERN AGENT.

Telephone No. 362. Mar. 22nd, 1906

JAMES H. REDDIN Barrister, etc., Has Removed his Office from the City Hotel Building, Great George Street, to rooms over Grant's Implement Warehouse, Corner of Queen and Sydney Streets.

Collections attended to Money to loan. Ch'town, Feb. 22, 1911-6m

KING EDWARD HOTEL

Mrs. Larter, Proprietress Will now be conducted on

KENTSTREET

Near Corner of Queen. Look out for the old sign,

King Edward Hotel, known everywhere for first class accommodation at reasonable

June 12 1907.

We can supply from this date Fresh Burned Lime in large and small quantities suitable for farming and build Aug. 15 1906—3m ing purposes.

Peter's Road, or at our office will receive prompt attention

C. Lyons & Co. May 29, 1912.

Fraser & McQuaid, Barristers & Attorneys-at-Law, Soucitors, Notaries

Public, etc.,

Souris, P. E. Island. C. McLEOD, K. C. | W. B. BENTLE

McLEOD & BENTLEY Barristers, Attorneys and

MONEY TO: LOAN

Offices-Bank of Nova Scotia Chambers.

We beg to remind our numerous patrons that we have REMOVED from 23 Prince Street to our new stand

122 DORCHESTER STREET,

All Orders Receive Strict Attention. Our work is reliable, and our prices please our customers.

H. McMILLAN

PLANT LINE

Direct Route to Boston

Commencing 7th May and following Tuesdays, steamer will leave for Hawkesbury, Halifax and Boston. Returning leave Boston every Saturday at noon.

For further information T. NICOLL. Agent, Ch'town. June 26, 1912-tf

A. Mathiesen, K. C., R. A MacDenald Jas. D. Stewart.

Mathieson, MacDonald & Stewart.

Newson's Block, Charlottetown Barristers, Solicitors, etc. McDonald Bros. Building,

Morson & Duff

Georgeown

Barristers & Attorneys Brown's Block, Charlottetown, P.R.I

MONEY TO LOAN. Solicitorsfor Royal Bank of Canada

W. J. P. McMILLAN, M. D.

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE, 148 PRINCE STREET CHARLOTTETOWN. June 15, 1910-W

Montague Dental Parlors

We guarantee all our plate to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Teeth pulled and extracted absolutely painless. A. J. FRASER, ID. D.

Orders left at Kilns on St. JOB WORK

Executed with Neatness and Despatch at the HERALD Office

Charlottetown P. E. Island

Dodgers Posters

Tickets

Check Books

Note Books of Hand Receipt Books Letter Heads

Note Heads