GENTLEMEN:

The lapse of time has again brought round the period, when the privilege of electing one to represent you in the Local Legislature has arrived. country of Huron.

Should I be successful in the election, it vill be my endeavor to serve you to the best of my ability, and also to promote the general inferests of the country, so are to maintain intext the privileges of the people on the one hand, while not seeking to infringe upon the preorgative of the Crown on the other. As is well known, my principles are liberal sind progressive; and I shall endeavor to secare amendment where needed and the maintenance of that which is good.

Theory and fractices show conclusively that, for the due maintenance of constitutional principles, there must be a vigorous opposition, governed by principle n. by faction. All good measures, will have my support, whether emanature from the opposition or the monistry.

No administration is so periest but mai it must be watched. The present is no exception to the rule, as it seems to have been the aim of the ministry to exalt the Escentive above the Legislature (more especially in the expenditure of the people's money), which should be corrected.

Matters of local developement will have my careful consideration and impartial support.

I need only say that it is my earnest desire that we may remain united to Great Britain, and that traitors and disturbers of the public peace, in whatever part of the Dominion they may be found, shall receive their due deserts.

I will be impossible, in the short time that elapses before the election, to visit all the Ridding; but I will endeavor to overtake as much of it as possible, so that I can give further expression to my views.

Pours faithfully, THOMAS GIBSON, Without tr. (1th March, 1871.
