Spring and Summer.

Prepare the body for health and vigor by taking Dr. Chase's Liver Cure. No Spring Medecine to equal it. It stimulates the Liver, aids digestion, and purifies the blood. Large bottle and Recipe Book, $1 Sold by Jas. Wilson.

Bill Nye is a kind, obliging man. Somebody wrote to him for his autograph, and received in reply the following note from the humorist: "Dear sir, in the absence of my amanuensis, will you kindly excuse me if I write my autograph myself? Yours, Bill Nye."

To the Rescue.

"When all other remedies fail," for Bowel Complaint, Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, &c; "then Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry comes to the rescue." Thus writes W. H. Crocker, Druggist, Wateadown, and adds that "its sales are large and increasing." 2

Iowa man—Talking about dry weather, why it's an actual fact that in Iowa the watermelons haven't a drop in 'em—have to be soaked before we can market 'em. Nebraska man—Shouldn't be surprised. Wish you could have been with me on a ride I took during the heated term. "Hot, eh?" "Well, I didn't feel it so much, but it was a pretty sight to see the corn popping in the fields."—[Omaha World.

A Complete Breakdown.

"For ten years," says Jennie M. Harrett of Wallaceburg, Ont; "I did not see a well day—was all broken down with dyspepsia, liver complaint, catarrah and debility. Three doctors abandoned hope for me, when Burdock Blood Bitters came to my rescue. It is the best medicine I have ever taken. I say this for the benefit of all suffering as I did. 2

The illustrious traveler looked contemptuously at the mountains. "Nothing very steep about here," he said, scornfully. "Make out his bill," said the noble landlord, turning to the gallant clerk, (Pronounced clark) And a great hush of measureless awe came into the office and sat down on a trunk listening to the remorseless scratch of the busy pen that was laying a grade of about four feet to the yard.—[Burdette.

A Sure Thing.

A sure cure for Summer Complaints.—Procure from your druggist one 37½ cent bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and use according to directions. It is infallable for Diarrhoea, Cholera Morbus, Canker of the Bowels, and Cholera infantum. 2

You are right, my son, too much sleep is injurious. Beware of too much sleep. But, then, too much wakefulness is not good likewise. Eighteen hour's sleep will hurt you less than six hour's wine supper. Some of the wakest times you have, my boy, are liable to bring on serious injuries by causing you to indulge in too much sleep.—[Burdette.

A Great Awakening.

There is a great awakening of the sluggish organs of the human system whenever Burdock Blood Bitters are taken. It arouses the torpid Liver to action, regulate the Bowels and the Kidneys, purifies the blood, and restores a healthy tone to the system generally. 2

A deacon of a Greenville, Pa., church has a string of buttons half a yard long, taken out of the contribution box within a few years. What business has the deacon with the buttons? They were contributed for the heathen, and several scores of heathens have been obliged to hitch their suspenders with a shingle nail because of this embezzling deacon. What good are these deacons, anyway, if a button must be stopped short of its mission?—[Holyoke Transcript.

Prof. Low's Sulphur Soap is a cheap and handy form of obtaining the healing virtues of a sulphur bath. 1m

A little boy was watching his mother make sandwiches to carry to the picnic, and asked what she was putting between the biscuits. She replied: "Deviled ham." He thought for a moment and then said: "Well, you needn't give me any of that bad man's ham, for I belong to the Star of Promise."

Worms Cause much sickness among children that Freeman's Worm Powders will surely cure. 1m Colborne.

The second of the series of temperance meetings being held in this township, was held in Zion church on Monday evening the 16th. The church was well filled. Mr John Kernighan was called to the chair by a unanimous vote of the meeting, and filled the position with great ability. Rev. John McGilliwray, Rev. John Young and the pastor of Zion church, Rev. Mr Kestle, delivered stirring addresses on the great question at the present time, strongly urging the need of using the ballot as a means of getting what we want, i. e., the right men in the right places, so that the laws may be enforced. $11.00 were raised at the meeting towards the funds of the county association. The next meeting will be held in Leeburn church in about two months. The musical part of the programme was acceptably filled by Zion church choir.

Dress.

The woman who is always well and neatly dressed is able to exercise a greater influence for good than one who is the reverse. The well-dressed woman is more attractive to the eye, and the eye is one of the main avenues to the heart. Other things being equal, her influence is more potent than her neighbor's whose reputation of dressing, "just as it happens" at home in some indefinable way casts a shade over whatever virtue she may possess. A woman neatly dressed is ready for emergencies. The chance caller and the unexpected guests finds her ready to receive them. But perhaps the greatest necessity for looking well at home exists in the home itself. To the members of our own family circle we owe the first duty.

Kingsbridge.

We notice that our school made a very creditable standing at the late entrance examination, no less than five having passed. In the report three names were mentioned among those who passed, while one was among the list of the recommended. Mr Strang was kind enough to recommend another, Mary Prindeville, who lacked only a few marks of passing on History, the paper on which, as everybody knows, was decidedly unjust. We understand that all those are recognized as having passed. We are proud to say that more passed from our school than from any other country school in the county, and taking all schools into consideration, we see that it stands second, Goderich school being first. Great credit is due Mr. Neven, the present teacher, Mr. McPhee, his predecessor, and to the candidates themselves. —One Who Takes an Interest in Education.

"Would yez giv' me the price of a meal?" asked a tramp of a venerable and kindly disposed looking man. "Can't you find any work?" queried the venerable party, as he took off his glasses and wiped them preparatory to replacing them so as to look at the mendicant. "Lookey here, mister," continued the tramp, "I want a fair answer to my question. I'm asking yez for money an' not work. Will yez answer me question wid a yes or wid a no?"
