The Fisheries Treaty in the Senate.

TURKEY REJECTS RUSSIA'S SUGGESTION.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 27.

German physicians have discovered cancerous matter in the phlegm expectorated by the Crown Prince. His position continues critical. The trouble with the Russian universities shows no signs of abatement.

It is stated that snow-storms impede European travel. Parnell has introduced a land bill granting tenants better terms. Gladstone and Morley will support Parnell's bill.

The expenses of the English Commissioners to Washington are three thousand nine hundred pounds.

The citizens of Ottawa will give Lord Lansdowne a farewell banquet.

The Canadian Government has authorized the Minister of Justice to stop prosecutions against American vessels seized last summer while fishing within the three-mile limit, Canada's exclusive jurisdiction having been recognized by the new treaty.

Senator Frye leads the Republican attack against the treaty. Secretary Bayard defends the treaty.

Turkey has rejected the Russian suggestion that Turkish troops occupy Bulgaria.

The English mail steamer arrived here last night.
