Tory Tricks at Hr. Grace.

Special to The Evening Telegram.

HR. GRACE, Last Night. The Liberal candidates, Gordon, Gosse and Mosdell, were nominated at St. Paul's Hall to-day and it was agreed by both sides there would be no nomination speeches. On returning to their committee rooms the Tories with characteristic sneakishness, having refreshed themselves, be-trook them to the Court House in order to have a pow-wow with the mid-Government officials, such as fishery wardens, inspector pickled fish, commissioners and contractors, etc. The Liberal candidates getting wind of their trick swooped down on them and found the wily Piccott in charge haranguing his hirelings and telling them what they had to trust to if he was defeated. Money Young then ap-pealed to them and besought them to elect him, promising that if they do so he would give them what was left after he and immediate family were fully provided for. Mr. George Gordon then took the stand and sailed into the Tory regime which proved too much for Arch and his coward follow-ers. He turned tail and called upon his satellites to follow, which they did and were glad to do, and in funeral procession proceeded by the under-taker, Arch and Mosey acting as pall-bearers. Such will be the Tory fate on the 30th. Dr. Mosdell addressed those who remained there, being about 150, and tore the Tory policy to pieces. Mr. George Gosse also spoke giving figures, showing the Tory loss and called upon the cowards to come back and get the medicine that was to give them eternal repose. The Liberals then repaired to their rooms and ar-ranged for public meetings and minor details. This district returns three Liberals with the largest majority ever known here. The meeting closed with the National Anthem, "Bond Can't Lose!" MORRIS CAN'T WIN.

Your Duty.
Nothing to do with the Custom House, good friend. It is only refer-ence just now is to yourself. Let us suppose that you are a man of family with sufficient of the world's goods to keep them in comfort. Very well. You did not reach this satisfactory state of affairs without care and labour—few men do. Suppose you are awakened some night with shouts of ringing in your ears. Too late then to talk of prudence, too late then to say: "If I had only, etc., etc." That "if" means too much to many forgetful people. Is it not always the duty of a self-respecting citizen to protect his home and thus provide for those within it. Is it any more than his duty to those depending on him to protect them as far as possible? Can you call your property your own when it is not insured? The answer to this argument is to carry insur-ance with Percie Johnson's agency, the most popular office in Newfound-land and the least expensive.

Rossley Theatre.
Last night there was a crowded house at the old reliable house, and all enjoyed the splendid programme provided. The way in which Miss Arkand's violin solos were re-ceived, showed how our people can appreciate good music. Her sweet song, "The Rosary" was a loudly applauded, but when she sang the il-lustrated song "The Shamrocks" she simply brought down the house, she had to sing the "Rosary" song. The answer and she must have felt very gratified at her reception.

Carroll's marvellous feat of escap-ing from a barrel of water is more bewildering than ever, a committee of gentlemen were invited on the stage to examine the barrel, and assist in locking Carroll in. Yet in a few min-utes he managed to get himself free. There is certainly some mystery how he can do it.

The pictures are of the best and the splendid picture "Nero" is a fea-ture in itself.

FLAT ISLANDS, Newfoundland, Oct. 8th, 1913.

Mr. Geo. M. Barr,

Dear Sir,—I have much pleasure in saying that the G. H. P. Motor Engine which I bought from you last spring has given me perfect satisfaction. The mechanism is perfect and so simple that a boy of 12 years of age has run it often.

The fuel used apart from a little gasoline to prime her, has been kero-sene oil, and I am pleased to say again that I got perfect satisfaction and it has been beyond my expectations.

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) L. J. CHOLLETT.

LADLE COVE, Oct. 10th, 1913.

Mr. Geo. M. Barr,

Dear Sir,—I am well pleased with my G. H. P. Fairbanks Morse Engine. It gives perfect satisfaction, and it has more speed than I expected it to have. The Fairbanks Morse engines will give perfect satisfaction as they are very easy engines to understand and a child can run them.

I would advise any one who intends to buy an engine to take a Fairbanks Morse and no other.

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) GEO. WELTON.

From Humboldt to Hoboken he leaves

Tories Routed at Harbor Grace.

Special to The Evening Telegram.

HARBOR GRACE, Last Evening.

There was an exciting time on the hustings here to-day after the candidates had been nominated. Representatives of the Grabbal team had asured the Liberals that the function was to be formal only and that there was to be no public speaking. However, the Liberal candidates suspected some duplicity and had some men attend the Grabbal committee meeting at the K. E. B. Armoury. While they were at dinner their agonies returned with the news that the Grabbals had sneaked off to the Court House to address the electors. The Liberals were soon hot on their track and reached the hustings just as Parsons was in the midst of a lot of guff and he shut up as suddenly as a steel trap as his opponents mounted the steps. He had previously expressed his sorrow that the Liberal candidates were not present but, when they turned up he showed how scared he was by immediately taking a back seat. The meeting at this time was almost entirely composed of Grabbal heeled, brought from Bay Roberts purposely to make up an audience for Piccott, Parsons and Young. They were mostly game wardens, Road Board members, Government contractors and others, who have been fed on revenue pay for the last four and a half years. Exactly the same lark who were brought down here last week for the Grabbal sheep supper. While the Liberal supporters were gathering in they had it practically all their own way and showed their ardent cowardice by interrupting Gordon. Piccott appealed to the sentiments of the gathering by referring feelingly to his physical de-formity and further made the false charge that Bond had squandered money on the fog free zone scheme.

He had previously talked big at committee meetings about giving Dr. Mos-dell a dressing down the first time he met him for alleged misrepresentation of the railway bungle of the Grabbals. However with the speaker on the platform he did not seem at all anxious to take him to task and after finishing a very flat speech he ran away from the platform taking his heelers with him. Capt. George Gosse was speaking at the time and he thrashed the cowards unmercifully, challenging them, while in ear shot, to come back and show a little manliness by taking the Liberal doses of medicine he had in store for them.

In justice to the Grabbal heeled it must be said that some of them showed an inclination to come back, being doubtless stung by Gosse's sarcasm.

However, Parsons and Piccott herded them off and like cautious men, they ran away to escape entire demolition.

Meanwhile upwards of three hundred Liberals had gathered and they heartily applauded Gosse and Mosdell as they left the Grabbal pretensions in shreds.

About one hundred and forty accompanied the runaways from the field and of these more than one hundred were well known Grabbal heel-ers from Bay Roberts and Spaniard's Bay. The Grabbals have lost what little respect and influence they ever possessed here by this cowardly action and Piccott, Parsons and Young are now the subjects of general derisation in this town. They haven't a ghost of a chance to get elected in the district and victory is sure in Harbor Grace for Gordon, Gosse and Mosdell.

In a report of H. Y. Mott's meeting, accusing me of creeping around the hall during the meeting and making myself conspicuous by hooting and absolutely false and untrue.

GIN PILLS Brought Relief

Larder Lake, Ont., March 26th.

"I had been suffering for some time with my Kidneys and Urine. I was constantly passing water, which was very scanty; sometimes as many as thirty times a day. Each time the pain was something awful, and no rest at night.

I heard of your GIN PILLS and decided to give them a trial at once.

I sent my chum 60 miles to get them and I am pleased to inform you that in less than six hours, I felt relief.

In two days, the pain had left me entirely. I took about half a box and today I feel as well as ever and my kidneys are acting quite natural again."

bladder—heat the sick, weak, painful kidneys—and strengthen both these vital organs. Money back if they fail.
