PARIS. Nov. 7. Since Nov. 1st, activity of the enemy has been more pronounced on the attacks against our positions have been supported by intense fire from heavy artillery. The fighting has been in progress day and night, all the week. Our troops repulsed every assault of the Austrians, who succeeded in occupying only one unim portant point on the frontier. Their losses have been enormous.

The Evening News makes the definite assertion that Earl Kitchener will not return to the War Office, and adds that his great abilities and long experiences in the eastern cities will be usefully employed.

The Globe, in its issue of Saturday which was seized by the police, sticks to its guns and again asserts that Earl Kitchener has resigned because of the manoeuvres and machinations of

KITCHENER'S MISSION.

LONDON, Nov. 8. It is generally assumed that Earl Kitchener has gone east with the immediate object of re-arranging the military personnel at the front, effecting in conjunction with the Allied nations some central organization of control of the scheme of military operations. To unravel tangles in the east with Britain's partners will likely occupy his attention for some time. Whether, when his task is accomplished, Kitchener will, or will not, return to the War Office, is known only to a very few and must depend on developments. It is not thought that Premier Asquith would undertake the burden of a prolonged tenure debate, and for the extraction of such London News Agency claims to have Kitchener intends to remain in office as Secretary for War, until the end of

"You all had the opportunity of knowning such a great and lovable character. In his death the Church of Newfoundland suffered an irreparable loss, for Archbishop Howley was not alone a great Churchman but a Patriot, for fifty years a Priest and twenty as a Bishop his name will always stand out prominently in the history of our country.

The passing of such a great man left a void that will be difficult to fill. After three score years and ten had been called to his reward and the burthen has been laid on his own unworthy shoulders but, the stability of our Church depends not on individual Bishops but on the golden chain of succession." His Grace said that as far as it had been possible he had visited widely his diocese, for it had been his wish to meet as soon as possible the people in their own homes His Grace told his flock that the "Good Shepherd" was his model. He strove to imitate the Eternal Pastor but, as the people reminded him in their address the burthens are great and many but the expressions o which proved their deep-seated Cathoic Faith will be a great consolation to him. tinguished you as the most worthy successor to the great prelate who preceded you on the Metropolitan Throne. This is why the Hall City speaking through Christ's Vicar did not hesitate to confer upon you the supreme authority in the ecclesiastical Province of Newfoundland by appointing you to the Archiepiscopa See of St. John's. Verily the finger of God is here. We know that no earthly task is more difficult, more laborious, more perilous than that of the office of Archbishop. We are aware that he is not for himself but for the flock. We realize in a measure that he must be the bondman of all, doomed to bear the burden of all.

But, Your Grace, in all your trials and labours in your earnest solicitude for the upbuilding of God's kingdom on earth, you may be cheered by the knowledge that your children of the laity, so far as they are able, are al- favor. ways ready to lighten your burden and strengthen your hands. In this respect we, the parishioners of Torbay guided by our esteemed Rt.

Rev. Pastor yield to none in Newfoundland. We earnestly pray that your every work may accrue to the exaltation of Holy Church and the sanctification of souls. May He who has placed you among the princes of His people give tion, fealty and love which have been you length of days. We beg Your Grace's' blessing and ask you to accept this purse as a small token of affection from your Spiritual children
