Many a chill can be avoided by the wise use of heating with ever-ready gas stoves. An insect gas fire can easily be installed in any ordinary coal grate, and will provide the necessary warmth at any time.

Gas Fires make no work. There is no coal to carry upstairs, and no ashes to be cleared away. They are ideal for use in daintily appointed rooms. There is no smoke or dust. They also ventilate the room. Enquiries solicited.

FRIENDSHIP is no Criterion

in the selection of an EXECUTOR

Quite the contrary. As a rule, the less personal interest an Executor has in an Estate, the better its affairs are administered.

The selection of an Executor is a matter of business, not of friendship. Friendship should, therefore, give way to sound business judgment.
