LOST THEIR GUNS!

Benson's Force Failed to Recover the Ordnance Captured by the Boers.

THE REAL MESSAGE.

Pretoria, Nov. 4.—It is now known that the Boers got away with the two guns captured from Col. Benson's column in the recent engagement near Brakenlaage, eastern Transvaal.

London, Nov. 5.—The Daily Express, a famous military coach, gives what it alleges to be the authentic version of the telegram sent by Gen. Buller to Gen. White during the siege of Ladysmith. It is as follows:

"I have failed. Unable to try again without siege operations taking a month. Can you hold out so long? If not, I suggest your firing away as much ammunition as possible and finally making the best terms. If you have any other alternative to suggest I can remain where I am as long as you like."

"Further dispatches were exchanged," adds the Daily Express, "and, learning that Sir George White was able to hold out, Gen. Buller settled down to prepare to force the Tugela."

Dr. Maguire, through whose hands half the officers of the British army have passed for study, professes to have acquired the information without seeking it some months ago.

ACCEPTED THE TERMS.
London, Nov. 5.—At the session of the South African compensation commission, Major-General Sir John Ardagh, the representative of the government, announced that the Netherlands had accepted Great Britain's terms for the settlement of the claims of Dutch subjects for damages as the result of their expulsion from South Africa.
