SNAP-SHOTS AT VARIOUS SPORTS

It would have been inconvenient for the Torontos and Tecumsehs had th C. L. A. convention and the N. A. L. U. meeting been held on the same day. Then they would have needed two sets of delegates-one to assist in legislation for the amateur clubs in the C L. A. intermediate and junior series, and the other to break into the eastern combination of gold-brick men, says

Recent advices from Australia contain the information that a cyclist named Arnst, a native Victorian, won the great Sydney Thousand, the one- M mile handicap race, for which $5,000, the biggest purse in the bicycle world, is hung up. The finals took place on March 28 at Sydney, Australia. Arnst, the winner, started from the 75-yard mark, and received $3,750 as his share. Walter Rutt, the German sprinter, was second, from scratch, and got $500. J Payne, another Victorian, with a 90-yard allowance, was third. He received $250. The time was 1 minute 54 seconds.

Both the big leagues are now in full swing, and will soon hit their stride Every team is sure to win the flag-now.

Now is the time when the rural regions will hand it to the metropolitan aggregations in the senior C. L. A. Getting double-crossed in the east will be a Sunday school picnic compared to what is coming to them now.

The dates for the tennis finals, for the Dwight F. Davis challenge cup, zes been set for June 15, 16 and 18, on the courts of the All England Club at Wimbledon. There is sincere pleasure among English tennis players a the announcement that America will send so strong a team as Beals C Wright, Holcombe Ward, Kreigh Collins, and Raymond D. Little, to com pete for the cup. Messrs. Wright and Ward, who played in the last international match, made a most favorable impression and are regarded as in the first rank of tennis players. Not so much is known of the other two men but they doubtless are up to the American standard or they would not have

What a wonderfully sad story is written to the seeming finish of Pillsbury's life. Endowed by a kind providence with a talent that became the wonder of men, he was seemingly not satisfied to develop that talent along reasonable lines, but must presume to make it abnormal and unreal. He strained the point and today finds himself mentally wrecked and physically weak-a charity patient, besides, the most pathetic condition that can come to sick and suffering men.

His present condition, mentally, reminds one of the fact that other chess masters before him have suffered mental disorders, and the lesson to be learned is one of caution. Chess requires great mental strain. Reasonably indulged, it is a mental recreation. Followed to excess, it is a destroyer both

LACROSSE WILL CUT FIGURE IN MICHIGAN

Calumet, Mich., April 17.-Lacrosse will occupy a prominent place in the summer sports of Northern Michigan this season. At the two Soos there is material for a couple of teams, and Percy Hartney, an old lacrosse player, is endeavoring to organize a club in Calumet. Houghton has had good lacrosse teams in former years, and undoubtedly will be represented by a strong aggregation this summer.

Nearly all the men who play in the International League Hockey Clubs in the winter are adepts at lacrosse. Captain Jack Laviolette, of the American Soos, has gone to Montreal, where a flattering offer was tendered him to play on a lacrosse team. The Soo teams will arrange games with Copper Cliff and Sudbury, on the Canadian side, and a series will be played with the Houghton and Calumet teams. It is possible that the Calumet Club, of been formed in Calumet to pull off a Chicago, and the St. Paul team will be brought north some time during summer. It will be the Cornish style the summer.
