TIGERS DEFEAT BROWNS 8 TO 7

Despite Ineffective Pitching Champs Pound Their Way to Victory.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 15 .- Pounding their way to victory, regardless of ineffective pitching and errors, the Tigers looked a little more like their real selves this afternoon as they drove Harry Howell from the box early and assumed a lead of four runs. Graham and Dineen fol-lowed him, but failed to stop the rungetting. Mullin got away fairly well in the early rounds, although not quite as good as he has been in the past few

In the fifth a line drive from George Stone nearly put him out of business, and after that he weakened perceptibly. The Browns, four runs to the bad, made a stand in the seventh and made three runs on five hits. Summers relieved Mullin just in time, and staved them off until ninth, a sacrifice and a sacrifice fly put am 'ere!" the game on ice. Crawford hit the fly to Hartzell in right, and Matty dashed for the plate. He scored without sliding, and touched it cleanly, although it was roar, making a rush at the umpire. Sheri- Rugby togs, and his jeans. dan ordered him from the lot.

This decision resulted in a riot after the game was over. The big crowd swarmed was a glanchig blow on the shoulder. The poor umpire gets it, going and such a big city. There was absolutely no need was safe. He had slowed up and his foot was resting on the plate when Smith lunged at him with the ball.
