The supply of oats this morning was large, but it demand was even greater and the fifteen loads that were offered were quickly sold. The price is also dearer, and at present ranges from $1 to $1 10 per cwt.

There was no wheat teday, and the price is steady at $50 per cwt. but the end of the week will likely see them a little cheaper.

Eggs were a scarce product on the market this morning, and the quantity offered was quickly bought up. The retail price for fresh eggs still continues to be 30c per dozen, but it is expected that a change will come at the end of the week, and they will be dearer.

Butter prices are unchanged.

CATHOLICS AND THE VIRGIN MARY

Rev. Father Durkin's Sermon in St. Mary's Church Last Night.

Rev. Father Durkin, O. P., of New York, a son of Mr. Michael Durkin, of Hilf street, who, with Rev. Father Healey, O. P., also of New York, is conducting a three weeks' mission at St. Mary's Church, explained the attitude of the Catholic Church on the question of intercession of the saints to a congregation composed almost entirely of ladies last evening. While any person may ask God direct for any favor, this does not preclude the possibility of intercession.
