MRS. NEWMAN TOOK HER LIFE

Letter From the Dead Woman Partially Clears Up Mystery at Oldcastle.

WAS TIRED OF SLANDERS

[Canadian Press.] Windsor, Ont., Sept. 11.—The finding of two letters written by Mrs. Mabel New-man, of North Ridge, a small hamlet near Essex, by local newspaper men, has cleared up the Oldcastle mystery. The etters written by Mrs. Newman on Friday Aug. 29, to her husband and a sister in Ohio, were found in a book or a table at the Newman home while the newspapermen were making a search for a photo of the woman whose body was found in a cornfield on Tuesday night.

Three hours later, by the dim rays of lantern in the stable yard of an underaker at Essex, the husband gazed upon he remains of his wife. Turning away from the gruesome spectacle, he an-nounced that the body was that of Mrs. Newman. What happened to Mrs. Newman from the time she left her home thirteen days ago, until her body was found, is mystifying to the authorities. The marks of violence on the body cannot be explained, and detectives are still

BUILDING RETURNS

Terror of Many Unions Is Dead at His Home in Plattsburg.

GREAT LOVER OF HORSES

Dying With Tuberculosis He Had a Cot Taken to Race Tracks.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Sept. 11.—The death James Farley, known through years of eadership as a strike-breaker in many cities of Canada and the United States, was reported early today from his home in Plattsburg. Farley boasted and was generally given the credit of starting the "industry of strike-breaking." From an altar oy at Malone, N. Y., where he was born 39 years ago, he turned to a circus runaway, became manager of an PLAN TO BAR up-to-date hotel, and finally entered the service of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company as a coal passer, from which he emerged in 1895 as eader of the non-union forces, which broke the great Brooklyn car strike.

Became a Terror.

His success in Brooklyn won him fame, and to city after city where labor troubles arose, he was called to do similar work until his business of strike-breaking and protecting lives and property developed into a systematic organization that for a time was the terror of strike agitators. Grew Very Rich.

Farley's profit came by a premium in service during strikes, and in a few decial choir of Hamilton Endeavor-Leaders in all branches of the stian service will be advisability of the standard service will be advisability of the stian service will be advisability of the standard service will be advisable to the sta and still larger sums in later years, when he broke up strikes in Chicago, Cincinnati, San Francisco and many other places in the United States and

A Horse Fancier. Since his circus days, Mr. Farley had peen a horse fancier, and during the latter part of his life he became the owner of a fine string of horses. He was such a thorough sportsman that during the last few weeks, while knowing that death from tuberculosis would overtake him this fall, he insisted upon being carried to several up-state race tracks, where he lay beside the course on a cot and watched his favorite horses contend.

And Fire Committee Again Recommends Buying Auto for Fire Chief.

Another recommendation for the purchase of an automobile for the fire chief was made by the fire, water and light committee on Wednesday. As before, it recommended an $815 runabout. The purhase of this car has been hanging fire for some time, in fact, for some years. Upon the presentation of the recommendation of the committee for an $815 car some time ago, the question was sent and Chairman G. E. Rose were delegated to purchase a pulmotor. This question was left over, pending a report from the chief on his return from the New York convention of fire chiefs. He stated that only one make was available, and t was decided to purchase that type. Arrangements were made for a joint our of the slaughterhouses by the committee and the board of health. Chairnan Dr. F. T. Burdon and Jas. R Haslett, of the latter body, waited on the committee in reference to having the ity pass the necessary ordinances to have all meat sold in London Government inspected. The members of the oard of health presented a strong case or inspected meats, and the aldermen ecided that they, too, would do a little evestigating to see the conditions as ev actually are.

Owing to the absence of Ald. Hubert Ashplant nothing was done in reference o the bread regulations that the com mittee may impose on the local bakers. E. Parnell, representing the bakers' interests, was present, but no discussion

PRAISES CANADA. [Canadian Press.]

New York, Sept. 11. - Commenting editorially on the action of the Canadian immigration officers in deportand turning to the crowd ordered it for non-indictable offences. They show ing Thaw yesterday, the Tribune says: This country must take off its hat to Canada. It has found a way to put a summary end to the Thaw game of trifling with its courts. While the Thaw lawyers were talking bravely of fighting the issue up in a leisurely way through the colonial courts and thus to London, the immigration offi cers suddenly cut the whole tangle of technicalities and dumped the bebewildered lunatic across the border, leaving a lot of attorneys and alienates regarding street traffic and the ists sorrowing for the loss of vast

But it has this to commend it: Justice has been done, and done promptly, The result, which would have taken months, and perhaps years, to accomplish, has been accomplished at once The Canadian legal system is spared the disgrace which would have sprung from seeing its processes employed to defeat justice.

> "The scene shifts. If anyone has reason to be ashamed of what will follow, it will be this country. What a pity that the public cannot look with confidence to any such swift and sure handling of the case in this country as in Canada.' Fear Thaw's Money.

The World says: "Thaw and his money bedevilled the administration of justice in New York seven years. A little more than three wees ago he landed in Canada. Now he is back where he belongs, and the prospects are for a long fight in American courts.

The Sun says: "The last act of the Thaw melodrama in Canada was in singular contrast with the subtlety o the earlier proceedings, the essence which was not any limitation of time. When directed by a master hand, the Canadian immigration department can be robust and expeditious. In cutting the gordian knot, the Hon. Charles J Doherty, minister of justice, and acting minister of the interior, did weat all respectable and scandalized Cana. dians wanted to be done: He deported Thaw, whose hired attorneys were making the Dominion a laughing stock, and dumped him on the soil of the country whose problem he properly
