ERECT NEW BUILDING FOR ADVERTISER JOB PRINTING COMPANY

Will Be Situated at York and Wellington Streets-Of Three Floors.

As soon as contracts have been let. The Advertiser Job Printing Company, Limited, will commence the erection of a new building at the northeast corner of York and Wellington streets. The building was decided upon some time ago, but the starting of work was delayed at the commencement of the war. Business has been growing so rapidly, however, that the directors found it necessary to go on with construction. The building will be three floors in all, and will provide equipment for one of the most up-to-date printing establishments in Ontario. With the removal of the job printing company from the newspaper building, the newspaper will make alterations and improvements, taking in all the job printing company.
