Guelph Hockey Crazy.

The biggest crown of the season was on hand for the game, every available seat being occupied, and in addition to the home crowd the visitors brought along a number of their supporters on a special train, which was late in arriving, and it was at least 9 o'clock before Referee Dr. Charles Stewart of Hamilton got the game under way. A great deal of interest was taken in the appearance of Conacher on the ice and they were anxious to see the big fellow in action, but he was not in the line-up at the start, being used as a sub. When he was in the game, however, he played a strong, heavy game, and in Guelph Hockey Crazy. played a strong, heavy game, and in the last period his rushes were a feature. for the first 15 minutes of the game the puck traveled up and down the ice at a fast clip, but the sharpshooters were unable to get the range and many of the shots went wild, but finally from of the shots went wild, but finally from a mix-up in front of the Guelph nets Muston poked the puck past Hayes The Guelph team protested the goal, claiming that the rubber went through a hole in the side of the net, but Referee Stewart allowed the goal, and in a minute or two Rennie made it two from ney can take any liberties with the Indians in the finals. The hard-boiled far will be only too willing to prick Guelph's bubble, and say that Connacher and Company have Guelph figured down to a nicety; that they are only hanging back or a real spurt against Stratford.

Shamrocks not only demonstrated their playing ability Saturday night, bu again demonstrated that London may be a lot of things in a lot of other sports, but cannot be accused of niggardly support when it comes to girls' basketball. Shamrocks promise other good games before the season ends, and of course they are set for the finals of the L. O. B. A.

Baseball is cosmopolitan. Its appeal reaches all nationalities. The list of players ordered to the training camp of the Chicago Nationals discloses the names of Cheeves, Aldridge, Hodges, Grantham, Heathcote, names that might have been copied from the membership rolls of a London club. It also discloses the names of Killefer and O'Farrell, Callaghan and Fitzgerald. Among other names we find Kauffman and Stauffer, Wirts and Friberg, Statz and Weis. Then Chicago has the two Dumovichs, Pelle, Vivoires and others. Europe's greatest nations are all represented in that list.

Lajoie was French, Wagner German, McGraw Irish, Cobb is Anglo-Saxon; Yellowhrose, Bender, Myres are all Indians. The game is not suited to any individual race, but to all.

Italian, Greek, Serbian, German, Frenchman, Irishman, Dane, Swede, Finn, Englishman find a common appeal in baseball. "It can be played in all languages Englishman and a common appeal in baseball. It can be played in all languages and will be," was the assertion and prediction of Harry Clay Pulliam. National and American League players, touring the Orient, find the children of the yellow races playing the game, and believe that baseball will soon have a real world series. That would be of greater help in establishing world peace than anything yet suggested, for nations that have much in common are not apt to war; those that have little or nothing in common generally manage to start one.

TIGERS LOSE 5--1

Only 800 Fans See Final Appearance of Tigers At Home.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, Feb. 25.-St. Patricks moved up into second place in the National Hockey League when they defeated Canadiens of Montreal here on Saturday night by 4 to 3 in a game that was productive of brilliant playing and many thrills. The largest crowd of the sea son attended. The Frenchmen put up their best battle of the year on local ice and had the Irish weakened they would practically have been eliminated from the race. Each team has three more stretch almost neck and neck.

Canadiens jumped into the lead three times, only to have the locals tie the score and finally win the game in the last period. The Montrealers tried everything they knew in an effort to win, and under ordinary circumstances would have done so, but for "Red" Stuart, the defence star from the Maritime Provinces, who played the best game of his career, and the Frnechmen found it almost impossible to stop him. NIGHBOR'S POKE HELPS. Hamilton, Feb. 25 .- Frank Nighbor's poke check and Syril Denenny's sharp shooting were two reasons why Ham-ilton lost to Ottawa in an N. H. L. fix-ture here on Saturday night by a score of 5 to 1. The Ottawa center man never gave a better exhibition of check-ling than he displayed extension never gave a better exhibition of checking than he displayed against the Bengals, for in the final frame it was almost impossible for the Tigers to get past center ice due chiefly to Nighbor's poke check. In the opening session the Bengals appeared to have an edge on the Senators, and it was only the hardest kind of luck that held the locals to their lone counter, but in the second and third periods Hamilton and their few supporters had but little fun, as the Senators were all over them like a tent and ran in five counters in quick succession. Only eight hundred fans turned out to see the Senators on their last appearance of the season, and they had little to enthuse over, as the close checking of Ottawa prevented the Bengals from showing to advantage

Special to The Advertiser.

Ingersoil, Feb. 25.—As a result of the formation of an athletic union it is expected all amateur sports will receive greater attention here than for many years. Baseball and lacrosse, it is understood, will be encouraged in a very enthusiastic manner. Already there are whisperings of activities in preparation for the opening of the season. It is probable that the town will again have an intermediate lacrosse team and the Midgets, who made a fine showing last season, are sure to be out as soon as the weather will permit.

Green Shirts Score Last Goal With Two Men On Fence-Hold Saints Scoreless.

Special to The Advertiser.

St. Marys, Feb. 24.-Kitchener earned the right to go into the semifinals of the junior O. H. A., by holding the locals to a 5-5 tie, played before the largest crowd of fans that has witnessed a junior game in this city for some time.
St. Marys made their appearance in the colors of the Varsity juniors, and they made a brilliant attempt to vercome the two-goal lead that the 'Green Shirts" captured in the home Werner Schnarr and his crew, however, were not to be over-come, with the result that a large number of people saw a game that they will remember for some time. The game today made the third ime the teams have met, as Kitchener put the locals down in the finals

Shortly before the period ended Molson scored on a long shot which Kells played rather carelessly. Play was scrappy, and in the last ten minutes Kitchener commenced to use their bodies with good effect. First period over: St. Marys 3, Kitchener 2.

Second Period.

This period produced some of the fastest junior hockey of the season, and the fans were kept on their toes throughout by the manner in play changed from end to end with rapidity.
