Farewell Reviews of the Canadian Regiment—Paymaster Biggar Retires.

Col. Hughes a Separate Unit—Notice to Applicants for Positions on Service.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—Dr. Borden, Minister of Militia, Gen. Hutton, Quarter-master General Foster and several other officers left for Quebec to-night. Militia orders issued to-day gives the official list of officers of the Canadian contingent as already published with the exception of Major Biggar, who was offered the position of paymaster, drops out, as his business will not enable him to leave.

Lord Minto has sent an appreciative reply to the Queen's gracious message. The militia orders include the following: "A grant of $30 towards defraying expenses of outfit will be allowed each man, and pay to the amount of $80 will be advanced. Pay of nurses will be on the British scale from the date of disembarkation in South Africa."

The department does not assume any responsibility as to accommodation or satisfaction for the Y. M. C. A. representative after arrival in South Africa nor undertake that he will be able to accompany the force after disembarkation.

Officers and nurses will report to Lt.-Col. Otter at Quebec not later than Sunday.

Consequences of numerous applications by officers and others for employment upon active service with the Imperial troops in South Africa, the Major-General commanding desires to notify general information, it having been found impossible to respond to each and every application. It has been noted and their applications will be dealt with separately as opportunity offers. There is under existing circumstances no special opportunity of further employment, other than the officers, non-commissioned officers and men already mentioned and men already mentioned to-night.

Further militia orders issued to-night instruct Col. Otter to have all helmets dyed a dark coffee color on board ship and to provide for the necessary dyeing of all ranks on Sunday. On Monday the regiment parades at 11:30 for official inspection by the Major-General and Dr. Borden will review the battalion at noon, after which the Mayor of Quebec presents a farewell address.

The troops will then march through the city to embark aboard the Sardinian, which will sail at 11:30 next day. Col. Hughes was here to-day. He arranged with the Major-General in accordance with the minister, but has not had any position assigned to him in consequence of Gen. Hutton's attitude.

STILL RECRUITING. Quebec, Oct. 27.—A detachment of volunteers from Winnipeg, composed of fifty men and two officers, arrived at this morning. They will be immediately joined in the immigration building on Lombard Embankment.

There is a probability that another batch of men leave here in a few days to bring the regiment up to the full complement of available men, who passed the examinations and it is expected at least twenty-five will be called on. They will be notified by telegraph and as soon as possible will proceed to Quebec in charge of some officer here.

MONTREAL DELINQUENT. Montreal, Oct. 27.—People are so anxious that they manage to parting with the volunteers that they will appoint a special committee to go down and see the contingent off at Quebec and present each with some little souvenir.

CIVILIZED WARFARE. British Not Using Expanding Bullets—Kind to Wounded Prisoners—Brutality by Boers.

London, Oct. 26.—Replying in the Commons to Mr. J. G. Thompson, Irish Nationalist, Mr. Wyndham, the secretary for war, declared the British troops are not using expanding bullets in South Africa, and have no such bullets.

Replying relative to the arrangements made for the care of the wounded, Mr. Wyndham said there were ample stocks of medicines with the British force, but possibly if they were forced to care for many Boers, the British resources would be strained, and the government was making provision for this contingency.

On October 3 Boer doctors, with assistants, arrived at Ladysmith, and the Boer wounded were placed in Dutch charge. The doctors expressed gratitude and satisfaction at the arrangements for the comfort and welfare of the wounded.

London, Oct. 26.—The Capetown correspondent of the London Daily Mail telegraphs as follows: "The whole colony is filled with indignation at the brutal brutality which the Boers are practicing on the refugees. The papers declare that this action is arousing a demand for vengeance. Dutch attempts were made to kill the refugees. There were no Boers."

Col. Eckert, Majors Routledge, Hammarstein and Noyent, and also Crum, Johnston and Ryan are improving. "The Boers occupied Dundee on Monday afternoon. Commandant Zuercher, who shot to death, was killed and looted by individuals who were unarmoured."

The hospital was removed yesterday from the old camp to houses surrounding the railway station.

The principal medical officer asked me to tell you that everything is going well, and everyone is cheerful and confident."

STOCKHOLDERS OBJECT. London, Oct. 25.—Some British bondholders are organizing an opposition to the re-organization plan of the Chicago Grand Trunk railway.

CHEERED ALONG THE ROUTE. Northwest Towns Join in the Honors to the British Columbia Contingent.

Winnipeg, Oct. 26.—(Special)—The British Columbia volunteers for the Transvaal received a continuous ovation to-day from the time they touched the Manitoba border in the morning until the train pulled out of town at 6 o'clock. When they arrived here 2,000 people were waiting for the train which was two hours late. They were loudly cheered and a band of music played for the Dragon barracks where luncheon was served. The men are all in fine fettle and many were the compliments of their friends on their soldierly appearance. The following despatches note their reception along the line west of here:

Moosejaw, N.W.T., Oct. 25.—The British Columbia contingent en route to the Transvaal passed through Moosejaw to-night and were met at the station by a brass band and several hundred citizens who had gathered there to cheer the contingent.
