The Erratic Judge of Huron Resigns-The Muni. ise had only a very brief sitting yeste nembers not being ready to go on der suggestions made in regard to it.

ESTIGATING COUNTY JUDGES.

Dominion authorities for allowing an act to pass, but refusing to allow action under it. But there was a great difference between allowing an act when it was doubtful, and allowing definite actions under it. The courts had since declared the act unconstitutional, u holding the action of the Dominion authorities. He asked about the resignation of the judge of Huron, which it was said the premier had received.

Mr. Mowat said what the government objected to was that the act had been allowed, and the Dominion government had not allowed anything to give effect to it or done anything to provide for some other action if it was not constitutional. Grave charges had been made against the county judge of Huron and the evidence was so clear on some of the charges that all were not investigated. The judge had tendered his resignation, not to take effect for six months, or at all if he continued sober during that time. The government refused to accept that, not thinking it right that he should remain as judge. They were proceeding to remove him, when the Dominion government took exception to the act. Then the agent of the judge was requested to send his resignation to Ottawa, but the judge refused to sign it. He thought that until the act had been pronounced unconstitutional that it might have been acted on, but it could not. Now when it had, when the judge found the act was taken exception to as unconstitutional, he refused to danything.

nunce as to the constitutionality of acts made it ill more so. These questions would arise, and he lought it would be well if some act could be passed om time to time by the Dominion to confirm legistion to which there was no exception, but if the institutionality of which there might be a doubt.

The railway committee passed two bills yesterday. One was to incorporate the Prescott and Glengarry counties railway—a branch running from Hawkesbury through Vankleek hill to a point at or near Glen Robertson, which will afford the lower section of the Ottawa valley direct connection with Ottawa and Montreal—and the other is to incorporate the Manitoulin island railway company which proposes to run a line of the Ottario and Sault Ste. Marie railway at a point north of the village of Little Current, on the Manitoulin island, to the village of Michael's Bay, on the south shore of the island, via the townships of Howland, Shequiandah, Assigniack, and Thekumnah, with the power to connect by ferry with Tober Morray, or some other point in the Indian reserve in the county of Bruce.

Johnston, J.H. Bronson and T. C. Ivring, all officers of the Yorkville poultry association, waited upon Minister Wood yesterday in support of a grant to the eastern poultry association. Their addresses were to the effect that the $600 now granted to the poultry association is almost altogether expended in the western part of the province; and the representatives from Toronto and the eastern counties wishlto form an eastern association, and ask that a grant be given them. They do not wish to deprive the western people of the grant, but they want something extra. Mr. Wood replied that he would bring the matter before the attention of the government to-day.

GAY AND BRILLIANT.

Annual Conversazione at University College—A Very Large Assemblage.

A large and fashionable gathering assembled at the University college last night, the occasion being the annual conversazione of the University cellege literary and scientific society. Among those present were the Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Robinson, Vice-chanellor Mulock, Archbishop Lynch, and Mons. Pernet. The ladies' dresses were rich and costly; a few decollette costumes were to be seen, but these were in a large minority. The brilliant uniforms of several officers of the Tenth Royals and other local corps afforded a pleasing contrast to the sombre ordinary evening costume of the private citizens. The principal event of the evening was the concert in convocation hall, and the several numbers were rendered in a manner that did infinite credit to the performers as well as to the indefatigable conductor, Mr. Torrigton.

The University glee club gained round after round of applause for the hearty and effective way in which their pieces were sung. Miss Nellie Hillary in "For ever and for ever," anchieved a most decided success, and Mr. Bayley's violin solo was also enthusiastically received.

The other places of interest, the library, museum, &c., were crowded from the beginning of the entertainment until the close, and the lecturerooms, where experiments in physics, chemicals and so forth were shown, were the chief centres of a large addience. Two Young Englishmen Practising with Revolvers on the Street at Midnight.

When a World reporter called at police head-quarters at 12:30 this morning he found that two officers had just brought in two young men for firing off revolvers in front of the church of the Ascension on Richmond street west. The accent, appearance and attire of the prisoners plainly stamped them as Englishmen new and fresh to the country. They thought they saw bears in the church grounds and proceeded to pop them off without ceremony. No bears were killed, but a f w bricks and the door whole were injured. LIFE AND DEATH.

Two tiny feet falt'ring o'er a stony road,
Two eyes forever dim with bitter tears,
Two hands oppress'd by pain's unceasing load,
A heart forever stirred by anxious fears,
A weary time of longings unfulfilled,
dreary space of bitterness and strife,
A restless yearning never softly stilled,
And this is Life!

Two quiet feet forevermore at rest,
I we eves by weary lide closed to all tears,
I've empty hands crossed o'er a pulseless breast,
A heart serenly free from doubts and fears,
The glad content of hopes at last fulfilled,
The tender uttrance of a voice which saith:
Within my shelt ring arms all fears are stild."
Add this is death!

McLeod, Simcoe Co.; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Jesse Trull, Oshawa. Executive committee: A. H. Hughes, Sharon; Jahel Robinson, Elgih; A. Gifford Meaford.

The committee on constitution and by-laws recommended changes in organization, etc., and the report was adopted.

The election of delegates to the Dominion grenge: was next in order, thirteen being named as follows; Jabel Robinson, A. Gifford, L. C. Shepley, Esse. E. H. Hilburn, Ontario; E. Cameron, Elgin; J. Trull; A. J. Hughes, R. Wilkie, Kent; W. Brock, Middlesex; L. Van Camp, Northumberland; J. S. McLeod, R. Currie, Huron; L. Chevne, Peel.

The committee on the good of the order advocated petitioning the Ontario gouernment to issue a further edition of the report of the commission on agriculture for distribution among the farming classes. They extolled the report as one of the most useful publications ever placed in the hands of the agriculturists, complimenting the government on the successful manner in which the work was done. They also recommend for the consideration of the order and public generally the propriety of providing for the teaching of scientific agriculture in the advanced classes in rural district schools, believing that, if a scientific agricultural education is ever to be given to the masses it must originate in the schools, and recommending that a portion of the funds of the association be appropriated for paying agricultural lecturers for lecturing throughout the centres for the schools, and recommending that a portion of the funds of the association be appropriated for paying agricultural lecturers for lecturing throughout.

BRANDON LOTS.

A number of Brandon lots were put up yesterday at Oliver's auction room. Among the bidders were the advertising solicitors of the Mail printing company and real estate agents. The prices at which the lots were knocked down—whether to real or fictitious buyers. The World cannot say—ranged from $69 to $150. At the sale it was explained that these lots were not in Brandon proper but in New Brandon. As a matter of fact farmers are laying out their farms into lots, six miles from Brandon station. And then there is North Brandon across the river, which is also town plotted. Next we will hear of West Brandon and East Brandon and Brandon Beyond.

Six square miles of prairie has quen town-lotted around Brandon is on the Pacific railway and the centre of a good agricultural country, but it does not follow that there is room for six square miles of solid business houses and dwellings.

And a portion of Brandon that has been town-lotted has been flooded on several occasions.

And part of it is in a swamp.

But it's frozen up well now and the purchasers won't know the difference.

And finally a large number of lots that have been old as Brandon have only a questionable title.

If people wish to buy Brandon lots they should first ascertain how far the lots are from the station, whether they were ever under water, and whether the title is good.

The Washington Shooting Affray.

Washington Shooting Affray
Washington, Feb. 10.—Soteldo has regained consciousness, although paralyzed from the head down.
He disclaims any intention to shoot Barton and says the latter fired first. He forgives Barton. He declines to give an ante-mortem statement. He says he carried a pistol for several days merely for protection, as he has been sleeping alone in a new house in a remote part of the city. It is stated the Soteldos were both intoxicated-yesterday. One barrel of Barton's pistol was found empty. The wounded Soteldo's pistol was undischarged.

The articles in the Republican which led to last night's affray, gave an account of a scandalous quarrel between A. M. Soteldo and Col. Keegan, a well known newspaper writer. Besides, bad feeling was caused by the articles. Soteldo was also in a disturbed mind owing to recent bad luck in business and journalistic ventures. It is said while Barton and A. M. Sateldo elinehed, the younger Soteldo stood a few feet off and shot repeatedly at Barton.

A. M. Soteldo has been sinking since morning, and to-night is in a dying condition. Barton continues to improve rapidly.
