

PETITION FOR HIS REMOVAL FROM THE CENTRAL BANK LIQUIDATION.

Mr. B. Howard and William Gooderham Have no Faith in His Administrative Capacity—The Wandering Jew's Connection With the Bank—A Field Day for the Master-in-Ordinary—"Judge" Humphries, Solicitor J. H. and Cashier Allen on the Stand.

There is an event being held in the Court of Queen's Bench tomorrow morning, which is of great importance to the public. It is the trial of William Gooderham, one of the liquidators of the Central Bank, on a charge of misfeasance in office. The case is of great importance, as it will determine whether or not a liquidator is liable for the actions of the bank during its liquidation.

Mr. Gooderham's removal from the Central Bank is the subject of the trial. He was removed from the bank on the 10th of January last, on the ground that he had mismanaged the bank's affairs.
The case is being tried by Judge Humphries, and it is expected that it will last for some days.

It is interesting to note that Mr. Gooderham was one of the original liquidators of the Central Bank. He was appointed to the position in 1887, and has since that time been connected with the bank's liquidation.

The trial is being held in the Court of Queen's Bench, and it is expected that it will attract a large number of spectators. The case is of great importance, as it will determine the liability of liquidators for the actions of the bank during its liquidation.
