It seems to me that it is about time that you gentlemen with the big stick methods call a halt as to what you will do with Canada. First, you predict a trade war to our disadvantage, and that you will prohibit the export of coal and sulphur. Now, Mr. Senator, but a few facts. We have unlimited two oldest members of Tecumseh Lodge, of Stratford, A., F. & A. M. and two years ago he was made an honorary life member of the Tavistock Lodge when it came into existence. A prominent figure in the church and political life of his community. Kr. Krug was also signally successful as a business man. He was engaged in the general merchandising business for 35 years in Tavistock and his store was the main business center of the village.
