Happy New Year.

We desire to extend to all readers of the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL AND POULTRY WEEKLY our best wishes for a Happy New Year.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We have completed arrangements with the publishers of the Farm Journal, a first class agricultural monthly, published in Philadelphia, whereby we can make the following unparalleled offers:

1—To every present subscriber who will get us a new subscription, for one year at $1.00, we will send the Farm Journal FREE, and the new subscriber, whose name is sent will also receive it free of all charge.

This splendid offer enable subscribers to get for themselves an excellent agricultural paper, absolutely free of charge and we hope to see hundreds of our patrons take advantage of it. Please lose no time in attending to this matter. All subscriptions received with $1.00, will be entered as expiring January 1st 1891, so that the new subscribers will receive each paper 15 months. Come now, and help us.

Our Leading Premium.

To BEE-KEEPERS.—A beautiful virgin queen, for delivery in the spring of 1890 will form the leading premium in this department of the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL AND POULTRY WEEKLY. The price of these when sold singly is 60 cents, but we will send one by mail, prepaid, to all those who send direct to this office $1.00 as a years subscription either new, or for a renewal of one full year. We also give choice of other premiums, and subscribers are at liberty to choose which they will have.

EDITORIAL

We are to have still another bee publication to be known as the "Southern Bee Keeper" and to be published at Fayetteville, Tennessee edited by Jas. W. Goodwin. We have no advice as to how frequently the publication will appear or as to the terms. We can only hope that it may not meet with the fate of many of its predecessors.

There should be a large attendance of eastern bee-keepers at the annual meeting of the Ontario Bee-Keepers Association to be held at Belleville on the 8th and 9th. As the O.B.K.A. is a provincial institution the directors feel that it is only right that eastern bee-keepers should have an opportunity of attending the annual convention, and as it is not always possible for them to at-
