

A tailings elevator is here seen at work and the variation between the height of the loosely stacked tailings and the face of the ground being attacked is apparent.

THE EARNSCLEUGH No. 1 DREDGE.

This dredge is represented leaving the Clutha River and commencing to attack a river flat.