

CHICAGO MARKET.

MARKET WEAK TRANSACTIONS SMALL.

WHEAT LOSES SLIGHTLY.

CORN DECLINES 1 1/4 CENTS.

PROVISIONS ALSO LOWER.

Chicago, Aug. 17.

Market has been steady, but the end of the session witnessed a steady shrinkage in prices all along the line, Corn leading the decline.

Wheat was at one time 1/2 a cent over last night's close, declined at the end of the day to 65 1/2 for September and 62 1/2 for December.

Corn for September opened weak, steadied, and then took a steady drop, which left it the loser by one and a quarter cents on the day.

Provisions were dull; Pork opened .5c. down, and Lard at yesterday's closing price, 7 1/2c. down, and remained soft all day.
