

Reckon yourselves dead indeed unto sin.

Rom. vi. 11.

Christian builds up, the infidel is pulling down. I thank you; I shall think of what has passed this afternoon?"

The sequel was that he was fully persuaded in his own mind to give up all his infidel companions and follow the Lord Jesus Christ. But the change did not stop here. When first the reader called he had to sit on an old, dirty chair, with a number of half-starved children sitting in their rags on the floor around him neglected and uncared for; now they have removed to a better house in a cleaner street. Within all is cheerful and happy. The father, no longer faithless, delights in the company of his wife and children, all of whom are neatly dressed; and his chief happiness is to read and speak to them of the things which belong to their everlasting peace.

GOD AND MAMMON.

 HE London Road Car Company has once more found that fulfilling the Fourth Commandment is sound economical policy. Last year they determined to discontinue Sunday traffic, and the chairman states that there has been a very remarkable improvement in the value of their property.

The traffic receipts have gone up nearly five thousand dollars over those of the previous year, although they ran six days against seven, and the value of their stud of horses had increased 20 per cent., owing to the discontinuance of Sunday traffic.

THERE are only two places where sin can be—either it is with thee, to lie upon thy neck, or it lies on Christ, the Lamb of God. If it lies on thy shoulders thou art lost, but if it rests on Christ thou art quit of it, and are saved; so now hold on to which ever thou hast a mind.--Luther.

THE London Church Missionary Society reports that a bribe of £5,000 was refused by a native Christian in India. His old invalid aunt came and embraced his feet, saying, "I will give 50,000 rupees to you this moment if you will only come with me and promise not to be a Christian." He answered her, "I cannot sell my soul for money."

THE way to the crown is by the cross. We must taste the gall if we are to taste the glory. If justified by faith, we must suffer tribulations. When God saves a soul He tries it. Some believers are much surprised when they are called to suffer. They thought they would do some great thing for God; but all He permits them to do is to suffer for His sake. Child of God, murmur not at your lot. You must have a palm as well as a white robe. Learn to glory in tribulation also.--M'Cheyne.
