MONTHLY MAGAZINE, TO BE PUBLISHED IN EDINBURGH;

ONDUCTED ON THE PRINCIPLES, AND BY MEMBERS, OF THE CHURCH IN SCOTLAND.

WHILE throughout Great Britain every Class of Religionists has one or more Publications devoted to its interests, the ANGIENT CATHOLIC CHURCH OF SCOTLAND CASH FOR A CASH, in CASH, for Linen, Cotton, and Moleskin RAGS, alone stands forth an exception—an exception the more strange alone stands forth an exception that she includes within and unaccountable, as it is notorious that she includes within the most bulk of the Scottish Aristocracy, as well as a her pale the great bulk of the Scottish Aristocracy, as well as a varied mass of talent, fully adequate to compete with any literary undertaking.

To supply this want, therefore, and rescue the Church from the imputation of remaining in a state of spathy, (most injurious in the present state of society), it is proposed by several Members of the Church to conduct a Monthly Magazine, to be published in Edinburgh, expressly in conformity with her principies, and, at the same time, presenting a medium for varied information on matters of Literary and General Interest;

and also comprised in a cheap and popular form, which may be acceptable to all Classes of Society.
