

SONGS OF HOME

By JOHN LOCKE. Come Sarah, sit by me, and sing a song of home, I'll be thy echo, and thy voice will be my song...

The music still is in my ears of Ireland's rippling rills; And through the mist of twenty years I see her high, green hills...

Ah! for the sweet old vanished times, my poor heart often grieves, When 'round the purple meads we strayed in silent summer eve...

Tho' twenty years have passed away since I saw Ireland's shore, My heart's unchanging and unchained—still Irish to the core!

Great Men Good Sleepers. Napoleon at St. Helena, censured what he called historical silliness (nisiarism) on the part of historians who judged of all men and events...

Conde was an excellent sleeper; so was the Duke of Wellington; so was Pitt, till his health became fatally shattered; and the power or habit is quite as essential in civil as in military affairs...

At Wagram there was a time when the French left was routed, and the artillery of Boudet taken. Intelligence of this disaster and of the threatening advance of the Austrian right to operate on the French rear being brought by one of Massena's aides...

Having given this order, confident in its execution by Lauriston, Davoust, and d'Aboville, and sure of its effect, tranquillised, moreover, by the progress of Davoust and our right wing Napoleon alighted, and that which will astonish, but is certain, is that calling Ruzan (the Mamelouk), he caused his bearskin to be spread out, stretched himself upon it, and fell into a deep sleep...

"There was a frog who lived in a spring, He caught such a cold that he could not sing. Poor, unfortunate Batrachian! In what a sad plight he must have been..."

How bravely a man can walk the earth, bear the heaviest burdens, perform the severest duties, and look all men boldly in the face, if he only bears in his breast a clear conscience void of offence towards God and man!

KEAT'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills...

Burnett's Cocaine allays irritation, removes all tendency to dandruff and invigorates the action of the capillaries in the highest degree. The Cocaine has earned a deserved reputation for promoting the growth and preserving the beauty of the human hair.

No Choir, Convent, or School can be without the Cantus Divinus, the new Choir Book. Its 300 pages, filled with pure Catholic music, embraced in Masses, Requiems, Vespers, Offertories, Hymns, Canticles, etc., make it a very desirable book.

It is no longer an idle dream or boasting to affirm that Fellows' Hypophosphites, wherein are united nature's forces, will strengthen man and make his life not only endurable, but sparkling with ruddy and joyous health; this then we recommend when vitality is on the wane, or when the organism becomes enfeebled.

NOTICE. An application will be made at the approaching session of the Legislature of Quebec, on the part of THE CATHOLIC EPISCOPAL CORPORATION OF MONTREAL, to obtain a Private Bill for the purpose of authorizing the said Corporation to sell an immovable property situate in the Parish of St. Genevieve, District of Montreal, to her given by the Testament of the late Messire Louis Marie Lefebvre, late Curate of that Parish, for the purpose of constructing a Hospital.
