ROMANCE OF A YOUNG ACTRESS.

MARRIED TO A GERMAN PRINCE

Privisued, Pa., July 30.—The sudden and hurried departure of Mrs. De Solms, of 630 Fifth Prirable of Mrs. De Solms, of 630 Fifth hursed departure of Mrs. De Solms, of 630 Fifth hursed, for Germany, has given rise to much avenue, for Germany, has given rise to much gossip. It is said her husband is no less a personage than Prince De Solms, a member of sonage than Prince of the wealthiest and most powerful ene of the wealthiest and most powerful families in Germany; that the wife, still young amilies in Germany; that the wife, still young amilies in Germany; that the sole and that some six or popular young actress, and that some six or popular young actress and that some six or popular young actress, and that young actress, and that young actress, and the wife, and young actress, duction, after which he became so enamored that he sought her hand in marriage. A berrothal followed, which, when it became known, created a zensation in court circles, and the family of the Prince threatened to disown him unless he broke off the engagement. He and his promised bride sailed at once for America, and on their arrival in New York were married. promised bride sailed at once for America, and on their arrival in New York were married. Since that time their career has been decidedly sheckered. Cut off by his family the Prince set about supporting himself and bride. At one set about supporting himself and bride. At one time he drove a brewery wagon at Latrobe. Panu., but after he made known his identity to Consul Max Schauberg, that gentleman had Prince De Solms made vice-consul. Since then the couple had been living in comfort ble circumstances, until last December, when the Prince left his wife and favuly, os-ensibly for the purpose of settling up a large estate. He Prince left his wife and family, os ensibly for the purpose of settling up a large estate. He has now sent for them, and the wife with her four children have started on the voyage. It is said the real object of the Prince's return to Ger-many was to effect a reconciliation with his family and it is inferred that he has been suctamily and it is interred that he has been successful and that the Princess on her a rival in Europe will be recognized and welcomed by the royal family.

A NATIONAL EVIL.

There is no question but that Dyspensia is the national disease of our country, and when complicated with diseases of the Liver and Kidneys is the cause of untold misery. Burdock Blood Bitters will almost invariably cure the worst case known.

Women denti-ts are gaining ground in Germany. They are practising in many of the great cities; in Hamburg, Strasburg, Cologne, Wiesbaden, and Frankfort-on the Main. They are very popular with the children.
