

by the by-laws of the association, except in cases provided for by this Act.

9. The council shall admit, as student associates, those desirous of entering the profession of architecture.

Candidates must give one month's notice to the secretary, giving their full names.

They shall pay such fees and submit to such examinations as shall be necessary in that behalf.

Graduates in arts, sciences and letters of any university in His Majesty's Dominion shall not be required, however, to pass any preliminary examinations;

Provided that any person who, before the passing of this Act, was entered as a student for a shorter term than five years, but not less than three years, with a principal or principals, approved by the council, shall, on serving the full time of his indenture and passing the examinations prescribed by the council, be entitled to register under this Act.

Notice and evidence of existing studentship shall be given to the secretary within six months after the passing of this Act and shall be accompanied by such fee as the council shall, from time to time, direct, and by proper certificate of such studentship.

Upon and after the passing of this Act, students shall serve such term as is required to be served by the provisions of this Act, under indenture to a registered architect, which indenture and any assignment thereof, with affidavit of execution thereto attached, shall be filed with the secretary upon payment of such fee as the council may by regulation direct.

The council may shorten the period of studentship to a term, however, of not less than three years in favor of graduates of any recognized college or school of architecture or technology.

The council shall admit after sufficient examination every graduate of a recognized school of architecture or technology after one year's study, under a principal approved by the council, provided the course of studies followed by such candidate shall have been not less than four years.

10. The council shall appoint an examiner or examiners for the purpose of ascertaining and reporting on the qualification of all persons who shall present themselves for admission to the study or practice of architecture, such examiners to be approved by the Minister of Education.

The council shall also prescribe the subjects for such examination, which shall take place in January and July on the days previously fixed and advertised by the council.

11. The council shall fix a tariff for the services of members which, when approved of by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council and published in the Official Gazette, shall be accepted in all courts of law as evidence of the value of such services, except there is an agreement in writing.

12. The time and place of the annual meeting of the association and of special meetings thereof, and for meetings of the council, shall be fixed by by-laws, also the mode of summoning and conducting the same.

In the absence of any rule or regulation as to the summoning of meetings of the association or of the council, it shall be lawful for the president, or in the event of his absence or death, for the secretary, to summon the same at such time and place as to such officer seems fit, by circular letter to be mailed to each member.

13. After the expiration of six months from the publication of the notice of the organization of the council of the said association, no person can take or make use of the name or title of architect, either singly or in connection with any other word, name, title or designation, giving it to be understood that he is an architect under this Act, unless he is registered under this Act as a member of the said association.

Any person who, after the time above mentioned, not being registered as a member of the said association, takes or makes use of any such name, title or designation, as above mentioned, shall be liable upon summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for the first offence, and not exceeding one hundred dollars for every subsequent offence.

In any prosecution hereunder the burden of proving that he is registered under this Act shall rest upon the accused.

14. The secretary shall, in every year, cause to be printed, published and kept for inspection at his office free of charge, under the direction of the council, a correct register of the names in alphabetical order according to the surnames, with the respective residence of all persons appearing on the general register on the first day of January in every year, and such register shall be called the "Architects' Register," and a copy of such register for the time being, purporting to be so printed and published as aforesaid, shall be evidence in all courts and before all justices of the peace, and others, that the persons therein specified are registered according to the provisions of this Act;

Provided always that in case of any person whose name does not appear in such copy under the hand of the secretary, the entry of the name of such person in this register shall be evidence that such person is registered under the provisions of this Act;

The secretary shall keep a similar register of student associates.

15. Members and student associates shall pay on such registration an annual fee as shall be required by the by-laws.

The names of those in default shall be removed from the respective registers by the secretary, after one month's notice to the parties, and shall not be re-inserted except upon the payment of all arrears and such fine (if any) as may be imposed by the by-laws of the association.

16. The council may direct that a name be removed from the register in the following cases (that is to say), at the request or with the written consent of the person whose name is to be removed, or where the name has been incorrectly entered, or where a person registered has, after the passing of this Act, been convicted, either in His Majesty's dominions or elsewhere, of an offence which, if committed in His Majesty's dominions, would be punishable by imprisonment for five years or more, or where a person registered is shown to have been guilty after his registration, either in His Majesty's dominions or elsewhere, of any conduct or breach of the by-laws, orders or regulations, of "The Alberta Association of Architects," or of conduct infamous in a professional respect.

When the council shall have removed the name of any person from the register, the name of that person shall not be again entered upon the register, except by a resolution of the council or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

The council may, by resolution, direct the secretary to restore to the register any name removed therefrom either without fee or upon payment of such fee not exceeding the fees in arrears or unpaid, and one additional renewal fee as the council may, from time to time, fix; and the secretary shall restore the name accordingly.

The name of any person removed from the register at the request of such person, or with his consent, shall, unless it might, if not so removed, have been removed by order of the council, be restored to the register, on his application and on payment of such fees not exceeding such fees as shall be in arrears, and one additional registration fee, as the council, from time to time, may fix.

In the event of removal or expulsion an appeal shall lie to the association which, at a general meeting, may reverse the decision of the council.

17. Subject to the other provisions of this Act, all notices and documents required by or for the purpose of this Act to be sent, may be sent by post, and shall be deemed to have been received at the time when the letter containing the same would be delivered in the ordinary course of the mail; and in proving such sending, it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notices or documents was prepaid and properly addressed and registered and put in the post.

Such notices and documents may be in writing or in print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and when sent to the council or other authorities, shall be deemed to be properly addressed if addressed to the said bodies or authorities, or to some officer of the council, or authority, at the principal place of business of the council or authority, and when sent to a person registered under this Act, shall be deemed to be properly addressed, if addressed to him according to his address registered in the register of this association.

18. All moneys arising from fees payable, on registration or the annual renewal fees, or from sale of copies of the register or otherwise, shall be paid to the secretary of the council, and by him paid over to the treasurer, to be applied, in accordance with such regulations as may be made by the council, for defraying the expenses of registration, and the other expenses of the execution of this Act, and, subject thereto, towards the support of museums, libraries or lectureships, or for other
