The Attention of the Public

Is attracted by any new feature in newspaper advertising, but it must be strikingly novel if the advertisement is read a second time.

advertising, but it must be strikingly nover it the advertisement is read a second time.

The display advertisements of retail merchants are artfully worded and appeal strongly to the economical housekeeper. Flat irons at seven cents and a Monday bargain sale in ribbons open the pocketbooks of the modern Mrs. Toodles.

The real estate agent with town lots for sale in an earthly paradise, ten miles from the court house, furnishes free transportation, a brass band and a free luncheon for prospective home seekers.

The railway companies do their share of contributing to the support of newspaper proprietors. Their time tables, showing arrivals and departures of trains, are paid for in cash, or in tickets which will enable the editor and his best girl to ride on the trains. ride on the trains.

which will enable the editor and his best girl to ride on the trains.

One railway company will advertise that it is a "short line to Omaha." A competing line then positively states that it is "a shorter line to Omaha than any other," and now the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway insists that it is "the shortest line to Omaha," and proves it.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Co. also says that it is the "best line to St. Paul and Minneapolis," with "electric lighted trains" and reading-lamps in each berth so that one can read all night long if he has a book and don't want to sleep. It brags about the "finest dining cars in the world," with the best of meals served on imported china by the most expert and civil of colored waiters, at seventy-five cents, while the lines east of Chicago charge a whole dollar.

And—once more—the Chicago, Milwaukre & St. Paul Railway opens up a new through car line from Chicago to Denver, via Omaha and Lincoln, and it isn't long before the whole world says to itself that "shortest line to Omaha," that "best line to St. Paul and Minneapolis," and that "new route to Denver," must be the only first-class railroad in the western part of the United States, and what the whole world says must be true:

In order to introduce our

Inhalation - Treatment

We will cure cases of

* CATARRH *

Free of all charge. All that we ask in return is that each patient, when cured, will recommend the treatment to other sufferers. For free cure apply without delay. We have hundreds of testimonials from all parts of Canada. In no form of disease is the wonderful potency of Medical Inhalation better seen than in the treatment of Catarrh. By means of the

GERMICIDE INHALER

We send the proper medicinal agents directly to the seat of the disease, destroying in a short time all ulceration and inflammation. Under its influence the irritated surface is soothed and healed, and the discharge rapidly diminishes. This seems too good to be true, but true it is, as hundreds in all parts of Canada can testify. What more rational method can there be of reaching and healing the diseased air-passages than by the use of the proper medical and chemical substances inhaled into the cavities. Those who prefer to write to some of the patients who have been cured can correspond with the following: Rev. J. S. Norris (late of Toronto), now pastor of First Congregational Church, Parkersburg, Iowa; Mr. Douglass, conductor, 11 Ontario street, Toronto; Mr. T. Mills, 29 Christopher street, Toronto; Mr. W. Fever, surveyor, soo Seaton street, Toronto; Mr. J. A. McNair, Schau, Ont. Mnclose a three cent stamp for reply. In the past two years we have treated over 300 cases of Catarrh free of all charge. It has paid us well. Neighbor tells neighbor, and friend tells friend of our success. If you have Catarrh do not fail to call or write. Address:

A BREATHING SKELETON.

EAST WATERTOWN, N. Y., March 17, 1892. The Dr. Howard Medicine Co., Brockv

Gentlemen,—I have used your Seven Spices, and I can recommend them as a sure cure for Dyspepsia of the worst kind. I was brought so low with this terrible disease that several physicians pronounced my case to be Cancer of the Stomach, and surrendered me to die as incurable. I was merely a breathing skeleton. Uncle Abel Coleman, of Ogdensburg, N.Y. came to see me, and brought me some of your remedy. I was so tired trying to live that I said to myself, "I will never try it." But he was so sure it would help me that I tried. It agreed with me, relieved my pain immediately, and enabled me to take and digest food. My husband purchased a supply of the medicine, and, thanks to your remedy, I was cured in a very short time, after two years of suffering. I know that the Seven Spices saved my life, and I think it only justice to other sufferers to lurnish this testimonial.

Yours respectfully.
