

Obituary

MRS. J. A. GREEN.

Shortly after the death, on the 14th of last March, of Mr. James A. Green vice-Consul for Norway and Sweden, his widow, nee Katherine H. Murphy, was prostrated by the same illness which had carried off her husband. From the very beginning of the malady the doctors held out little hope of recovery, but Mrs. Green's strong constitution battled with the bronchitis and heart trouble for five long months, during which she bravely prepared for the dread passage. Her foresight and thoughtfulness, her calm farewell to the family she loved so dearly, will long remain as a stimulating memory to her nearest and dearest. Being a woman of strong faith and stirring virtue she received the last sacraments as soon as she became aware of her dangerous condition, and thereafter frequently purified her noble soul more and more by confession and communion.

Mrs. Green came of a well-to-do Irish family who emigrated to the neighborhood of Quebec city in 1825. There her relatives prospered and attained positions of social eminence. There she married Mr. Green and brought up her large family, till some twenty years ago, her husband, having been entrusted with important interests in Winnipeg, the whole family settled here. The youngest child, Sadie, died in this city in 1887. The following children remain: Mrs. Archibald Sharples, Quebec, Mrs. H. G. Marquis, Mrs. J. Harold Smith, Mr. J. Arthur Green and Mr. Harry Green.

Mrs. James A. Green breathed her last at the age of seventy, on the morning of Sunday, the 14th inst. On Tuesday afternoon the funeral took place from her late residence 121 Cauchon street, Fort Rouge, to St. Mary's Church, where the Rev. Father Cahill officiated, with the Rev. Fathers O'Dwyer as deacon and Thibaudeau as sub-deacon respectively, assisted by the Rev. Father Drummond, S.J. The choir sang the "Libera," and Miss Madge Barrett sang in a most sympathetic manner "Some Sweet Day." At the conclusion of the solemn service Mr. Evans played the Dead March in "Saul" and the cortege proceeded to St. Boniface Cemetery, where the interment took place. The floral tributes were very numerous. The pall bearers were: Mr. Justice Killam, H. M. Howell, K.C., A. Bain, R. J. Whitla, T. A. Anderson, and F. E. Gautier.

The Review tenders its warmest sympathy to the much-afflicted family who have had the grief of witnessing for so many long months the sufferings of both father and mother, but whose bereavement must now be assuaged by the trust that their parents will meet one day in their everlasting home.

THE FUNNY WORLD.

The tadpoles all sat in the river and said:
"How lucky we are to be all tail and head!
Just think how we'd feel if we were as absurd
As a goggle-eyed fish or a feathery bird—
Or worse still!" they cried,
"We would wish we had died,
If, instead of being such nice polly-wogs,
Mother Nature had made us all into green frogs!"

The dignified frogs sat on green lily-pads
And said: "How absurd to say we sprang from tadps!
From the little black tad-poles, all tail and all head!
Why, if it were true, we should wish we were dead!
But it cannot be so!
For how could we grow
So beautiful, if we had been polly-wogs?
No! No! We have always been dignified frogs!"

And the feathery birds high up in the tree
Sang: "The world is as funny as funny can be!"

WORLD'S FAIR IN COMFORT.

A new and very attractive feature of World's Fair travel is now being inaugurated by the Northern Pacific Railway whereby visitors to the Fair can enjoy the comfort of a Pullman sleeping car while in St. Louis, instead of being obliged to find rooms at the crowded hotels. It is the intention to place at the disposal of parties of twenty-five or more a modern first-class Pullman sleeper to run from Winnipeg to St. Louis and return giving sleeping accommodation while at the Fair at a charge of $2.00 per day for each double berth for an eighteen day trip. This would make a very reasonable outlay and the rate for an eighteen day excursion tickets being $35.85 brings the great fair within the reach of all who desire to make the trip. A communication to Mr. H. Swinford, General agent of the Northern Pacific Railway, Winnipeg, will bring complete particulars of the trip and as the space in these cars will be limited, immediate application should be made for a reservation.
