

- (a) the offence in respect of which it is requested is considered by the requested State to be a political offence or an offence of a political character;
- (b) it appears to the requested State that the request was not made in good faith or in the interests of justice or was made for political reasons or that it would otherwise be unjust having regard to all the circumstances including the trivial nature of the offence.

2. Extradition shall be refused if:

- (a) the offence in respect of which it is requested is considered by the requested State to be a purely military offence;
- (b) the person sought is being proceeded against or has been tried and acquitted or discharged or convicted and punished, by the requested State or by a third state for the offence in respect of which extradition is requested.

3. For the purposes of this Treaty conduct constituting the following offences according to the law of the requested State shall not be regarded as political offences or offences of a political character:

- (a) an offence within the scope of the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft, signed at The Hague on December 16, 1970;
- (b) an offence within the scope of the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts Against the Safety of Civil Aviation, signed at Montreal on September 23, 1971;
- (c) an offence within the scope of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes Against Internationally Protected Persons, including Diplomatic Agents, signed at New York on December 14, 1973;
- (d) an offence within the scope of any convention to which both contracting States are party and which obligates the parties to prosecute or grant extradition;
- (e) an offence related to terrorism;
- (f) murder, manslaughter, assault causing bodily harm, kidnapping, hostage-taking, offences involving serious damage to property or disruption of public facilities and offences relating to firearms, weapons, explosives, or dangerous substances;
- (g) an attempt or conspiracy to commit an offence described in subparagraphs (a) through (f) or counselling the commission of such an offence or participation as an accomplice in the offences so described.
