(d) Contributions retained under paragraph (b) (ii) and (iii) above shall be allotted by the Technical Assistance Board in such a manner as it may decide and at such time as it may decide, taking into consideration all relevant factors, in particular the amounts and kinds of resources on hand and receivable, the technical assistance requests received which fall within the field of the several participating organizations, the uncommitted balances held by them, and the need for the retention of any reserves to meet unforeseen requests from Governments.

(e) The Technical Assistance Board shall determine the manner in which different currencies and services or materials can be most effectively utilized.

(f) The amounts received by the participating organizations shall be available to them for the purpose of assuming obligations or commitments during the fiscal year in which these amounts are received, but actual expenditure shall be allowed to extend over a period of not more than the two ensuing fiscal years.

(g) The Secretary-General and the executive heads of the other participating organizations shall, after consultation, make appropriate arrangements for the audit of contributions and expenditures under this programme.
