

- United Nations Problems. L.B. Pearson, Department of External Affairs. Directors' International Day Luncheon, Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto. September 2, 1947.
- Canada, the United Nations, and the United States. H. Hume Wrong, Ambassador in the United States. Tarrytown, N.Y. September 15, 1947.
- Canada as a Member of the United Nations. Rt. Hon. L.S. St. Laurent, Secretary of State for External Affairs. At opening of the Second Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations, Lake Success, N.Y. September 18, 1947.
- Canada's Election to the Security Council. Rt. Hon. L.S. St. Laurent, Secretary of State for External Affairs. Chamber of Commerce, Quebec City. October 7, 1947.
- Canada and the International Trade Organization. Hon. Paul Martin, Minister of National Health and Welfare. Canadian Chamber of Commerce, 18th Annual Meeting, Quebec City. October 7, 1947.
- National and International Control of Atomic Energy. General A.G.L. McNaughton, Representative to the United Nations. University of Toronto Engineering Society, Ajax, Ontario. October 30, 1947.
- New Tasks for Exporters. Hon. Douglas Abbott, Minister of Finance. Canadian Exporters' Association, Montreal. October 30, 1947.
- The Charter of the United Nations. Rt. Hon. L.S. St. Laurent, Secretary of State for External Affairs. Law Society of Upper Canada, Toronto. October 31, 1947.
- Canadian Participation in International Organizations. Rt. Hon. L.S. St. Laurent, Secretary of State for External Affairs. Canadian Club, Toronto. November 3, 1947.
- Canada and the United States Dollar Shortage. Hon. Douglas Abbott, Minister of Finance. Canadian Broadcasting Corporation program. November 17, 1947.
- National and International Control of Atomic Energy. General A.G.L. McNaughton, Representative to the United Nations. Canadian Club, New York. December 17, 1947.
- Canada Meets a Challenge. (Canadian-United States trade and United States dollar shortage in Canada). Hon. Douglas Abbott, Minister of Finance. Life Insurance Association of America, New York. December 18, 1947.
- Peace Through the United Nations. L.B. Pearson, Department of External Affairs. Annual Dinner of the Board of Trade, Toronto. January 26, 1948.
- Some Canadian Problems and Projects. H. Hume Wrong, Ambassador in the United States. 51st Annual Dinner of the Canadian Society, New York. January 30, 1948.
- Canada's International Financial Relations. L. Rasminsky, Executive Assistant to the Governors of the Bank of Canada. National Defence College, Kingston, January 30, 1948.
- The United Nations. R.G. Riddell, Department of External Affairs. Victoria College, Toronto. February 4, 1948.
- A Canadian Approach to the Problem of Prices. K.W. Taylor, Assistant Deputy Minister of Finance. United States Conference of Mayors, New York. February 16, 1948.