

- 5.4. Aid for the co-production of films and audiovisual works shall be granted in respect of co-productions of works primarily intended for cinema showing and of co-productions of works primarily intended for broadcasting by television or cable distribution, where such work is produced by producers independent of the broadcasting agencies.
- 5.5. Aid for the distribution, broadcasting and promotion of a film or audiovisual work originating in one or more Member States of the Fund shall be granted to cover expenditure specified in the application for the manufacture of copies, subtitling and/or dubbing and recourse to various means of promotion. Such aid may not exceed 50% of such expenditure.
- 5.6. Aid for exploitation shall be granted to support and develop the exploitation of European films or audiovisual works in the Member States of the Fund.
- 5.7. Distributors and exhibitors from an associate Member State can benefit from the support scheme for distribution and cinemas.
- 5.8. Aid shall be allocated in the form of grants, loans at a preferential rate or advances on receipts.

6. Accession and withdrawal^{1 2}

- 6.1. Any Member State of the Council of Europe may, at any time, indicate to the Secretary General its intention to join the Fund as a member or associate member. The Secretary General shall forward this request to the Board of Management, which shall hold a preliminary dialogue with the State concerned regarding the modalities of accession, with respect in particular to the provisions of paragraph 6.3 below. The Board of Management shall inform the Secretary General and the State concerned of its opinion, on the basis of which the State may notify its accession to the Fund.

In the event of disagreement about the modalities of accession, it will be for the Committee of Ministers, in its composition limited to the Member States of the Fund and in agreement with the State concerned, to take a decision.

- 6.2. ³A non-member State of the Council of Europe may accede to the Fund, either as a member or associate member, provided that its application is unanimously accepted by the Fund's Member States. The European Union may also accede to the Fund on the same condition.
