

which should be given serious study here and elsewhere, in order that the impetus of the hopeful agreements of 1963 can be regained, so that we may move forward to more far-reaching stages of general and complete disarmament itself.

This completes the statement of the Canadian Delegation in the general discussion of disarmament. We have only touched on certain of the subjects on our agenda. We reserve the right to speak again when we have reached the stage of considering specific resolutions.

---

S/C