VISIT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
TO THE MIDDLE EAST

The Right Honourable Joe Clark, Secretary of State for External Affairs, announced today that he will make an official visit to the Middle East in the first half of April. His itinerary will include Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Egypt and Israel.

The visit will provide a timely opportunity for Mr. Clark to exchange views with the leaders of these countries on major international issues, particularly the search for peace in the Middle East. Mr. Clark will also wish to discuss a variety of bilateral and regional issues in each of the four host countries.
