ORAL QUESTION PERIOD

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

ADJUDICATION ON PROBLEMS OF MORALE

Hon. Robert L. Stanfield (Leader of the Opposition): I had a question for the Postmaster General which I thought was important, and I was wondering whether the Secretary of State for External Affairs can inform us whether the Postmaster General will be in the house today.

Hon. Mitchell Sharp (Secretary of State for External Affairs): No, Mr. Speaker, he is not here. The Acting Postmaster General will reply.

Mr. Diefenbaker: The decimated ranks of Tuscany.

Mr. Stanfield: I have no doubt the attention of the Acting Postmaster General has been directed to the announcement on Friday by the council of the Postal Union denying the earlier statement of the Postmaster General concerning the morale of the Post Office and describing the present situation as explosive. Can the Acting Postmaster General say whether the Postmaster General intends to take any action to provide for third party adjudication of this problem? Can he, in short, say what action his colleague proposes to take?

[Translation]

Hon. Gérard Pelletier (Secretary of State): Mr. Speaker, I am not in a position to say what are the intentions of the Postmaster General in that regard. He is not here today because he is negotiating with some mail transport services in the city of Montreal.
