

Proviso as to supply bills

62. The Senate shall not proceed upon a bill appropriating public money that has not within the knowledge of the Senate been recommended by the Queen's representative.

No tacking clauses

63. A bill of aid or supply shall not have annexed thereto any clause the matter of which is foreign to and different from the matter of the bill.

PART VI

COMMITTEES

Senators to retain seats in committee of the whole

64. When the Senate is put into committee of the whole every senator shall sit in his place. A senator who desires to speak shall rise and address the chair.

Rules in committee of the whole

65. (1) The rules of the Senate shall apply in committee of the whole with the following exceptions:

- (a) the rules limiting the number of times of speaking shall not apply;
- (b) a motion for the previous question or for an adjournment shall not be received;
- (c) arguments against the principle of the bill shall not be admitted.

(2) In committee of the whole a senator may at any time move "that the chairman leave the chair" or "that the chairman report progress and ask leave to sit again." Either motion shall be decided forthwith without debate and if resolved in the negative the motion shall not be reintroduced unless some intermediate proceeding has taken place. If the motion "that the chairman leave the chair" is resolved in the affirmative, the chairman shall at once leave the chair, shall make no report to the Senate, and the bill or other matter referred to the committee shall be removed from the order paper.

Proceedings recorded

(3) The proceedings of a committee of the whole shall be entered in the Journals of the Senate.

Committee of selection

66. (1) At the commencement of each Parliament a committee of selection consisting of nine senators named by the Senate shall be appointed whose duty it shall be to nominate the senators to serve on the several standing committees.
