February 7, 1923.

Sir Arthur Currie,
Principal, McGill University,
M o n t r e a l,
Quebec.

My dear Sir Arthur:

I am in receipt of your letter of February 5th and will recast the lecture so that it can be given without lantern slides.

I do not know, as yet, when I shall arrive in Montreal but it will either be late Thursday evening or early Friday morning. In any event, I shall stop at the Ritz-Carlton and will be at the Windsor before the luncheon hour.

Very truly yours,

Director.
